Kuroki Takes Another Big Step in Advance.

LOSSES NOT GIVEN

Kuropatkin's Report to Emperor Mentions Only Three Officers as "Included."

NO NEWS FROM PORT ARTHUR

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

St. Petersburg, June 10.—The Japanese forces under Gen. Kuroki have occupied Siu Yen, west of Fung-Wang-Cheng, on the road to Niuchwang, driving out the Russians.

The occupation of the town was accomplished only after stubborn fighting that lasted throughout the day June 8. That the losses were severe on the Russian side at least is evident from Gen. Kuropatkin's report of the engagement, but the number of men lost is not intimated in the text of the dispatch made public.

What Kuroki's plans are now is the subject of much conjecture here. Siu Yen gives opportunity for advance in three directions—on Hai Cheng, on Kai Ping, or on Niuchwang. One conjecture here is that Kuroki's activity is merely a feint to distract the attention of the Russian army from the relief of Port Arthur and another is that he is really intending to give battle in force, if possible, to the main army under the Russian commander-in-chief.

Kuropatkin's Report.

Gen. Kuropatkin's dispatch, dated yesterday, is as follows:

"June 7 the Japanese slowly continued their march toward Siu Yen by the Takushan and Fung-Wang-Cheng roads. Their advance guard did not approach nearer than five miles south and east of Siu Yen. On the morning of June 8 a Japanese infantry brigade, two mountain and five squadrons of cavalry marched against Siu Yen. About 11 o'clock the Japanese appeared before the town on the south side, but were checked by a very successful fire from our batteries.

"Japanese infantry then began advancing against the town from the east by the Fung-Wang-Cheng road, and came in contact with the Cossacks holding the pass. After two hours' fighting the Cossacks were obliged to retire and our artillery opened fire along the pass, not allowing the Japanese to establish themselves. At this moment a Japanese mountain battery arrived and took a position to the south, but after firing a few rounds was silenced by our battery. A second Japanese batery did not succeed in getting into action, but was compelled to evacuate its position under the fire of our guns.

Outflanked by Japanese.

"In the course of the fight a flanking movement by several battalions of Japanese infantry was observed northeast of Sluyen threatening our line of retreat. Consequently our Cossacks gradually withdrew five miles from Sluyen, keeping up their fire from a battery on a dense column of the enemy at a range of 600 yards. The fire slackened about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Among our losses were Cheremissineff, chief of the Cossacks, Cornet Komarovski and Lieut.-Col. Possokhoff. To all appearances the Cossacks were engaged with troops of the Tenth division.

"In the affair of June 7 at Vafangow we had one rifleman wounded, but the Japanese sustained considerable losses. According to the testimony of residents they had 40 killed or wounded."

Details of the affair at Saimatza follow: "June 7, at 6 a. m., an outpost company on the Aiyang road was attacked by the enemy. A detachment of chasseurs was sent as a reinforcement. More Japaneese then appeared, one battalion with a mountain battery, positioned before Saimatze.

Retreat Is Ordered.

"The chasseurs at first pressed the Japanese, inflicting losses and taking rifles and equipment from the killed, but the advance was checked by a very severe fire. Reinforcements now joined the enemy, bringing up their strength to a brigade of infantry, two battalions of artillery and three squadrons of cavalry. Thereupon the commander of our detachment ordered a retreat toward Fenchulin pass. The detachment withdrew slowly and in good order, holding successive position.

"Our wounded included Capt. Makharoff

MINERS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Union Will Lay History of Colorado Troubles Before Roosevelt.

PEABODY OBDURATE

Many Teller County Officials Remain Away from Home to Avoid Resigning.

EXILING WORK CONTINUES

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

Denver, Col., June 10.—The executive board of the Western Federation of Miners decided today to appeal to President Roosevelt to investigate the condition in Colorado. Secretary W. D. Haywood was instructed to send the following telegram:

"A duty devolves upon you as president of the United States to investigate the terrible crimes that are being perpetrated in Colorado in the name of law and order. We will render every possible assistance to the proper authorities in such investigation, to the end that the people of the country may realize the outrages that are being inflicted on innocent persons by those in temporary official power.

It was further decided that a history of the labor troubles in Colorado shall be taken to Washington by an agent, and placed in the president's hands. It also was voted to appeal President Moyer's habeas corpus case to the United States supreme court.

Martial Law Not Declared.

Gov. James H. Peabody today made a statement explaining the difference between martial law and military rule, such as is in effect in Teller and San Miquel counties under his orders.

"I have not declared martial law in any community in Colorado," said the governor. "I have only declared them to be in a state of insurrection and rebellion, and the newspapers have used the term martial law in describing my proclamation. When a community is under martial law, a provost guard is appointed and all prisoners are given military trial under this guard. Nothing of the kind has ever been attempted in Colorado. I have only arrested men and held them until I deemed it proper and wise to turn them over to the civil authorities for trial."

"I believe in stamping out this set of dynamiters," answered Gov. Peabody, when asked if he countenanced the deportation of union men by the deputies and military in the Cripple Creek district, "and I intend it shall be done. The supreme court," he added, "has granted me the power that policemen and sheriffs have, and I am exercising that power."

Colorado's Strike Loss.

In an interview concerning the closing of the Portland mine at Victor by order of Gen. Bell, James E. Burns, president of the Portland Company, who is here, said that nearly one-half of the Portland force were not members of the miners' union.

The cost of the various strikes in Colorado during the past 16 months is estimated at $23,036,000. Of this amount the state has had to pay $636,000 for maintaining troops in the field, and the loss to strikers and others directly affected in wages, etc., and to the employers in loss of business is placed at $22,400,000. With the exception of a few brief periods the national guard has been on duty at one point or another in the state since early in 1903.

The following Teller county officials are exiles from their homes, and will not return to Cripple Creek while the military is in control, owing to reports that the citizens committee, which is co-operating with the military, intend to force them to resign their offices:

District Judge W. P. Seeds, County Judge A. S. Frost, County Assessor P. J. Devault, County Treasurer D. J. McNeill, County Clerk F. P. Mannix. All of these officials, except Judge Seeds, are in Denver.

"I have not been asked for my resignation," said Judge Frost today, "but I have heard that members of the mob which has taken control of the affairs of the county are after me. I shall stay in Denver until the militia has been withdrawn from the district. I have no idea of resigning, but it is impossible to do business properly and orderly in Cripple Creek under present conditions. Judge Seeds has telephoned me not to

CO-RESPONDENTS ARE NAMED IN THE PHIPPS DIVORCE SUIT

Husband Charges Infidelity Against His Wife and Says He Took Children from New York Hotel Because of Evil Environments.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

DENVER, June 10.—A. H. McKee, cousin of Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps and a wealthy resident of New York, and Dr. Thomas Gallagher of Denver, former physician for the Phipps family, are named as co-respondents in the Phipps divorce case. Infidelity is the main charge embraced in the complaint by Lawrence Cowles Phipps against his wife, Genevieve, for absolute divorce and the permanent custody of the two children.

The complaint goes thoroughly into detail. As a reason for kidnaping the children from the hotel in New York city, Mr. Phipps says they were at the hostelry with their mother at the time she was guilty of unfaithfulness and that he removed them surreptitiously for the simple reason that he believed an effort would be made on the part of their mother to keep them amidst such evil environments. He says he wished them protected from vice and took the means that he did to get them to Denver and subject to the orders of the district court.

A divorce complaint of such length has seldom been filed here. It recites practically every deed of the wife which the husband deems sufficient to sustain his demand for a divorce. McKee, Mrs. Phipps' cousin, is said by Mr. Phipps to have been almost constantly with her at the hotel in New York city, and that her acts of indiscretion were many.

Dr. Gallagher is prominent in society and was acquainted with Mrs. Phipps prior to her marriage.

Mrs. Phipps did not arrive in the city today as was generally expected. Her attorney today received instructions to bring action for ejectment against her husband to secure possession of the home here.

MAY CALL CHOATE TO THE CABINET

Much Speculation at Washington as to Attorney General Knox's Successor.

DALZELL PAYS COMPLIMENT

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.

Attorney General Knox did not come here today from Valley Forge for a conference with the president, as it was reported he would.

The probable successor of Mr. Knox as attorney general was the subject most discussed here today and speculation took a wide range. As mentioned in these dispatches yesterday, so far as the trust prosecutions are concerned, Judge W. A. Day, assistant to the attorney general, appears to have an advantage from the fact that he is thoroughly familiar with this branch of the work of the department of justice. His name was frequently mentioned today in connection with the cabinet position and it was prophesied by many that he would be chosen.

But it is by no means certain that the president will be influenced in his selection by the fact that Judge Day is the expert of the department on trust litigation. As was stated by Mr. Knox in his interview yesterday, the policy of the administration towards the trusts is President Roosevelt's policy, and the duty of the department is to successfully carry out this policy. Hence Judge Day's expert knowledge may not count for so much in the choice of the next attorney general.

Another name that has been put forward for the law portfolio is that of Solicitor General Henry M. Hoyt. Mr. Hoyt is an able lawyer and has the confidence of the president and Attorney General Knox. Just what chance he has of getting the appointment is not known.

A report was in circulation today to the effect that it was the president's wish to secure Joseph H. Choate, ambassador to England, for the attorney generalship if possible. It is said that if he can induce Mr. Choate to enter the cabinet he will send Gen. Horace Porter, ambassador to France, to England, and fill the Paris post with a new man or by the elevation of some of the present diplomatic officers. Mr. Choate, it is argued, is a lawyer of the proper caliber and his affiliations are such as to be no impediment to his acceptance of the attorney generalship.

KNOX NAMED U. S. SENATOR

Formal Action Is Taken by the Governor Who Appoints.

NO EXTRA SESSION

In a Careful Review of the Law, Chief Executive Gives Reasons for His Course.

SATISFACTION IS UNIVERSAL

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
HARRISBURG, PA., June 10.

Gov. Pennypacker this afternoon formally announced the appointment of Attorney General of the United States Philander C. Knox of Pittsburgh as the successor of the late Senator Matthew Stanley Quay.

The governor also announced that he will not call an extra session of the legislature to elect a successor to Matthew Stanley Quay for the unexpired term, which terminates March 4 next.

The governor sent the announcement of the appointment and his decision not to call an extra session from his farm at Pennypacker's Mills by his secretary, Bromley Wharton.

Mr. Wharton came here at 1 o'clock this afternoon and went direct to the executive department, where he met the newspaper men and briefly told them the news. An hour later the governor's reasons for not calling an extra session were made puplic. The governor's decision not to call an extra session is accompanied by an extended discussion of the question in all its phases which he prepared after consulting with Attorney General Hampton L. Carson.

Leaves for Pittsburgh.

Gov. Pennypacker left tonight with Adjt.-Gen. Stewart and Mr. Wharton for Pittsburgh to attend the unveiling tomorrow of the Hawkins monument and will not return to his office until Monday, when it is expected the commission of the new senator will be prepared, signed and forwarded to the clerk of the senate.

The appointment of Mr. Knox was received with the greatest satisfaction on capitol hill, and the general expression was that it was a most happy solution of what promised to be a grave question.

Those who expressed themselves as satisfied with the selection were State Treasurer Mathues, Auditor General Snyder, Secretary Fuller, State Librarian Montgomery and Superintendent of Public Buildings Shumaker.

"It means a great deal for Pennsylvania," said Mr. Pennypacker, "and it shows that the leaders of the party are anxious to please the people and have Pennsylvania properly represented in the United States senate."

The Governor's Statement.

The governor's statement follows:

The question arises as to the manner in which the vacancy in the United States senate caused by the death of the Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay shall be filled. It is a question which, since the adoption of the Constitution, has arisen at various times and in different ways, and has led to much discussion and is still involved in great uncertainty. The last time that a decision was rendered by the United States senate it was reached by a vote of thirty-two senators in the affirmative and thirty-three senators in the negative.

This question, if it is to be determined, requires a consideration of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, as well as of those of the constitution of Pennsylvania. The governor of the commonwealth is required by his official oath to give heed to both of them. Section three of article one of the Constitution of the United States provides, "the senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof for six years." This indicates the fundamental thought that the senators are to be chosen by the legislatures of each state. The same section further provides that "if vacancies happen by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies." It is plain that the purpose to be accomplished by these provisions is that vacancies, in whatever way they may arise, may be filled and that each state may have its full representation in the senate.

The present vacancy occurred during a recess of the legislature of the state and there can therefore be no doubt as to the right of the governor to make a temporary appointment. Although the word used in giving the power is the word "may," since there is a definite object to be accomplished, it is not only a right, but probably a duty upon the part of the governor to make such temporary appointment. This appointment is to continue "until the next meeting of the legislature." Just what is intended by the next meeting of the legislature is not so clear. It might be contended with much force that what is meant is the next regular session of the legislature.

Analyzing the Law.

The vacancy is described as one happening during the recess of the legislature, which recess must be the term between the regular sessions. It could not have reference to a period existing before a special session, which has not been called and which may never exist. And since it is this period which is described in one part of the section, it may be well argued that another period could not have been meant when the next meeting of the legislature is referred to in another part of the same section.

Section 2 of article 6 of the federal Constitution further provides that "this Constitution and the laws of the United States, which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made or which shall be made under the authority of the United States shall be the supreme law of the land, and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby; anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding." Under this provision of the Constitution, and since a United States senator is an officer of the federal government, its provisions with respect to the filing of vacancies are paramount and nothing in the constitution of the state can justify disobedience to them if there be any conflict. If the construction of the meaning of the words "until the next meeting of the legislature" suggested above be correct, then the temporary appointment by the governor continues until the next regular session of the legislature.

Article 2, section 4 of the constitution of Pennsylvania, provides, "In case of a vacancy in the office of United States senator from this commonwealth in a recess between sessions, the governor shall convene the two houses by proclamation on notice not exceeding 60 days to fill the same." Neither in its thought, nor in its language does this provision indicate that careful deliberation which ought to have been given to the sub-

BULLET FINDS ITS MARK IN RUSSIAN MINISTER

Czar's Representative in Switzerland Is Shot by Turkish Subject.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

BERNE, SWITZERLAND, June 10.—The Russian minister here, M. V. V. Jadovski, was shot in a street here this afternoon and wounded in the head. His assailant was a Russian named Ilnitzki. He had been in Berne for some weeks and complained that the Russian authorities had confiscated an estate belonging to him.

M. Jadovski's wound is not dangerous. A surgeon successfully extracted the bullet this afternoon. It is believed the wound will heal normally.

The federal council, in extraordinary session, decided to bring Ilnitzki before the federal tribunal.

Ilnitzki is an engineer. He was formerly a Russian officer, but now is a Turkish subject with a Turkish passport. The Russian minister received several threatening letters from Ilnitzki, which he turned over to the police. This morning Ilnitzki questioned the minister regarding his claim, but obtaining no satisfactory reply shot him.

LOVED AT FIRST SIGHT; MARRIED IN THREE DAYS

A Massachusetts Girl Becomes the Bride of a California Millionaire.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BROCKTON, MASS., June 10.—Romance surrounds the wedding of Miss Maud Ella Crowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crowell, of 36 Wilmington street, and Henry S. Foote, of San Francisco, which took place at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon. Miss Crowell had been visiting her aunt in New York and last Monday evening Mr. Foote was one of a theater party arranged in her honor.

Mr. Foote is a San Francisco millionaire, and was in New York for a short time, preparatory to making a European trip. It was a case of mutual love at first sight, and Mr. Foote and Miss Crowell, after a complete understanding, came on to this city where the former secured the consent of her parents for their marriage.

Mr. Foote is the only son of the late ex-Senator W. W. Foote, of California, who died three months ago, leaving his son a large fortune, extensive mining interests in the west, diamond mines in South Africa, and an automobile factory in San Francisco.

ject. There is no direction as to the time within which the proclamation is to be issued and if we are to look to the words alone, this important matter is left to the discretion of the governor.

The State Provision.

Why the notice should be limited to a time not exceeding 60 days after the proclamation is issued, it is difficult to understand. There is no discretion as to the length of time required for the notice except that it shall not be longer than 60 days from time of the proclamation. The direction that the governor shall convene the two houses to fill the vacancy is explicit. If we are to look at the words alone, no discretion whatever is given to him. They are mandatory and no matter what may be the circumstances, if a vacancy happens in the recess between sessions, the governor must call the two houses together.

Can this be what was intended? In the absence of a provision fixing the time for notice, it must be concluded that what is a reasonable length of time should be determined by the government. Such a reasonable time would perhaps be a period of 30 days. Suppose a vacancy should occur by death, or otherwise within a period of 30 days, or of five days, anterior to the regular session of the legislature, what then is the governor to do? Suppose such a vacancy should occur within a period of 30 days, or five days, anterior to the first of December, at which date the legislature expires, what is the governor to do?

If he has no discretion and this provision is absolute and mandatory, he must convene the two houses, although it be impossible for them to come together, or impossible that they should be able to fill the vacancy. If, in such a case, he may exercise discretion and determine not to take this unnecessary and idle step, then it rests with the governor to determine upon a view of each situation as it arises whether or not the legislature ought to be so convened, bearing in mind the fundamental thought of the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of Pennsylvania, that senators should be elected by the legislature.

In the construction of contracts and of statutes, it has been held that where the word "shall" is used in such a way as to be in conflict with what is the intention of the of the instrument to be gathered from its terms, it may be held to have the force of the word "may." If, in this section, the word "shall" could be held to have the force of "may," it would undoubtedly be well for the interests of the commonwealth and would be in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, which uses the word therein, section 12, article 4, of the constitution of Pennsylvania, which provides "he may on extraordinary occasions convene the general assembly."

Assumes the Responsibility.

It is impossible to believe that those who drafted the constitution of Pennsylvania did not see the impossibility of complying with this provision in the event of a vacancy occurring at a time near the opening of the session and near the expiration of the terms of the members. In the course of time these events are sure to occur, and some governor will be confronted with the impossibility of carrying into effect this provision if it be mandatory. It is the contention of many good lawyers that the provision is in violation of the Constitution of the United States, since it provides for a method of filling the vacancy different from that of the federal Constitution and in curtailment of the authority therein conferred upon the governor. If there is to be a discretion in the governor with respect to convening the legislature, it would be his duty to consider the difficulties to be overcome and the advantages to be secured.

The regular session of the legislature will meet upon the first Monday in January, 1905. The senate of the United States, unless called in special session, will meet upon the first Monday in December, 1904. There is, therefore, only a period of about one month which will elapse before, at its regular session, the vacancy can be filled by the legislature. The expense of calling a special session is very considerable. At the present time there are 71 vacancies in the Pennsylvania senate and house, and in each one of these instances special elections would have to be held. The capitol is in course of construction and is not fit for occupation.

In view of all these difficulties of construction and practical difficulties, without undertaking to render a decision upon any of them, or to establish a precedent, and in full recognition of the primary thought of both constitutions that senators should be elected by the legislature, I take the responsibility of declining to call a special session for the purpose of electing a senator to fill the vacancy existing, and I shall make a temporary appointment in compliance with section 3, article 1, of the Constitution of the United States.

MESSAGES BY HUNDREDS CONGRATULATE PENROSE

All Parts of the State, Jubilant Over Selection of Knox, Pledge Support.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—The appointment today of Attorney General P. C. Knox, by Gov. Pennypacker, as successor of the late Senator M. S. Quay, ends speculation and closes the senatorial incident. Particularly is this fact emphasized by the governor's statement to the effect that there will not be a special session of the legislature. The Gazette this morning forecasted the executive's decision.

Since the announcement of Mr. Knox's selection by the leaders was made public yesterday, Senator Penrose has received more than 700 letters and telegrams from Republicans in all parts of Pennsylvania, congratulating him upon the wisdom displayed by the leaders, predicting that Mr. Knox's candidacy would cement all factions, and pledging support to Senator Penrose as the state leader.

Further fusion activity in Allegheny county has been squelched by the selection of Mr. Knox. It is officially given out that the regular Republican organization will be recognized to the exclusion of all insurgent factions. The Citizens party will not be given national or state recognition.

Maj.-Gen. Charles Miller of Franklin was in town today. He contradicted the statement that Congressman Joseph Sibley would land in New York tomorrow, and said his advices were that Sibley would remain on the other side for some time. Gen. Miller refused to comment upon the selection of Gen. Knox, beyond the statement:

"I suppose Penrose knows what he is doing."

The general's manner did not denote personal satisfaction, and it was evident he would have preferred another candidate.

Penrose and Durham refused to be quoted on the result. That they are pleased is apparent, as is also the fact that they do not apprehend any serious trouble because of their decision.

TRIBUTES TO KNOX.

Westmoreland and Lawrence County Leaders Satisfied With New Senator.

GREENSBURG, PA., June 10.—(Special.)—The selection of Attorney General P. C. Knox as Senator Quay's successor is satisfactory to Westmoreland county Republicans. Congressman Huff paid a tribute to Knox and County Chairman James Gallagher said Knox would have the support of the Westmoreland delegation in the legislature. State Senator Cyrus E. Wood is delighted with the leaders' choice.

NEW CASTLE, PA., June 10.—(Special.)—The appointment of Attorney General Knox to succeed the late Senator M. S. Quay gives satisfaction here. Attorney General Knox is known by all the older members of the Lawrence county bar and they are especially pleased. It also meets the approval of wage-earners, who admire Knox's stand against the beef trust and other combines.

REGULARS ARE ALL FOR KNOX

His Appointment as Senator Is Gratifying to the Republican Organization.

WORKHOUSE SUPERINTENDENT

All of the regular Republicans and the business interests of the county are well pleased with the appointment of Attorney General Knox as the successor of Senator Quay. One of the strongest expressions comes from ex-Senator Flinn, who was a candidate for the place. Thomas S. Bigelow simply says that he is a soldier and will go along with the procession.

Senator Flinn had this to say of the selection of Mr. Knox:

This is a great and growing community, and I doubt if any other community in the country will be as ably represented in the congress of the United States as this one, with P. C. Knox in the senate and John Dalzell in the house. People anxious for the permanency of Republican policies and the welfare of the nation ought to feel gratified and proud that the county will have two such admirable representatives.

County Chairman Ford, who participated in all of the Philadelphia conferences and made a gallant fight for the selection of an Allegheny county man, was well pleased with the outcome. He said:

Mr. Knox has been appointed senator on the basis of his fitness for the office. His candidacy for the full term will undoubtedly receive the support of the Republican party of the county. The sole purpose of the local organization being represented in the conference was to advance the claims of the county. While we preferred certain individuals that were named, we are gratified that our purpose was accomplished in the selection of Mr. Knox. We believe that his candidacy will unify the party in the county, as it should be satisfactory to every faction and element.

Organizations Work Together.

Every regular Republican is satisfied that the local organization is now on a better footing with the state leaders than it has been in years. In the distribution of patronage the leaders will recognize the regular organization. In state matters the leaders will have the support of the city and county organizations. These conditions have not prevailed in this county for 10 years.

The appointment of Mr. Knox will prevent the Citizens from placing a ticket in the field. This means a Republican victory. It permits that there will be no hostility to the senator. Senator Woods, who was elected by the Citizens, announces that it will be his pleasure to vote for Mr. Knox in the full 120 votes from the county.

Richard R. Quay, who had much to do with the selection of the attorney general, came home from the east yesterday. He modestly says: "I had little to do with the decision, but I believe that it was the most representative, and good that could have been done. The man is the finest that could be procured. The leaders showed great discernment in their action."

Dalzell is Mentioned.

Congressman Dalzell is mentioned as a successor of Attorney General Knox. Internal Revenue Collector Heiner, who has been in Philadelphia, predicts that Mr. Dalzell will succeed Mr. Knox. He says that the congressman is a close adviser of the president and thoroughly understands the policy of the administration. Other friends of Mr. Pittsburgher say that while they would like to see Mr. Dalzell in the cabinet, it would be unwise to take him out of congress.

While Pennsylvania would like to name the successor of Mr. Knox, it is generally believed that President Roosevelt will go to another state for his attorney general. Owing to the conditions in Illinois, it would not be surprising if the new cabinet officer would be selected from the array of legal talent offered by that commonwealth. Frank O. Lowden is looked upon as excellent timber for an attorney general. He came within a couple of votes of wresting the gubernatorial nomination from Deneen after Gov. Yates had failed to break the deadlock. The troubles now existing in Wisconsin may be settled by the president going to that state for an attorney general.

Workhouse Superintendent.

There is a scramble for the position of superintendent of the Allegheny county workhouse since Superintendent William Hill has decided to resign. The place pays about $10,000 a year. It will be filled at a meeting of the prison board to be held at Claremont on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A. H. Leslie, present select councilman from the Seventeenth ward and former director of the department of safety, appears to be in the lead for the position. The selection is in the hands of five men. While it is claimed that Leslie will receive the appointment, there is, at present, objection to him on the board. One member holds the deciding vote. The other candidates are ex-County Commissioner W. W. Murray, ex-Mayor William McCallin, ex-Sheriff Harvey A. Lowrey and D. L. Wright. The latter is a son of the former warden of the penitentiary. In addition to these the opposition to Leslie is considering the names of a couple of men. It will require three votes to elect and the friends of Leslie are confident that he will have a majority.

Arrangements are being made for the trip to Chicago of the delegates and alternates to the Republican national convention. The party will leave over the Pennsylvania lines next Friday evening. So far the following delegates, alternates and others have signified their intention of going:

Delegates, Charles F. Kirschler, James H. Willock, John Dalzell, Samuel H. Church, William Flinn, D. L. Gillespie, John A. Bell, George T. Oliver, F. L. Robbins; alternates, Robert K. Cochran, George Chalfant, R. W. Cummings, Thomas H. Patch, E. F. Rusch, A. M. Barr, John Dalzell, George Wilson, O. S. Horneman. Those who will accompany the delegation include the following: Sheriff James W. Dickson, F. W. Edwards, M. G. Leslie, John Henderson, John W. Crawford, R. M. Kopp, R. W. Black, Thomas F. Ford, Charles A. Muehlbronner, George L. Walter, F. J. Torrance, Archibald Mackrell, J. H. Purnell, Ed Herran.

Jacob Lightner of the Thirty-seventh ward has been appointed a draughtsman in the office of the secretary of internal affairs. He succeeds the late Capt. John M. Gill.

Now that the summer is here, every man who is a householder should provide for the comfort of his wife and family by burning natural gas for fuel. Women who use gas for cooking don't get that "all done out" feeling, and the house is not like a bake oven. To introduce gas to non-consumers the Philadelphia Company this month will make free service-line connections and set meter free. As this is the first announcement of this great offer, there will be a rush of applications. Ask at 435 Sixth avenue or any Philadelphia Company office.

SIU YEN TAKEN BY THE JAPANESE

and Lieut. Ronjitski. Both officers, however, remained in the ranks. About 100 men were killed or wounded. The enemy suffered severely. Accoutrements taken from the Japanese dead show that they belonged to the Twelfth division. The commander of our detachment compliments the calm courage of our troops, and reports that the conduct of the Red Cross company was above all praise.

"The Japanese bombardment June 8 of the coast between Senyuchen and Kaiping caused no loss of life nor material damage, although a considerable number of shells were fired. The man doing hospital duty was slightly wounded and two wagons were damaged. All was quiet on the coast this morning, but several Japanese ships were cruising in the offing.

General Advance Begun.

TOKYO, June 10.—(Special Cable)—Gen. Kuroki has begun a general advance on the Russian position at Liao-Yang with all his forces. He is co-operating with the army landed at Takushan and has driven the Russians out of Siu Yen on his left flank and from Saimatzu to the northeast of Feng-Wang-Cheng on his right. At the battle of Siu Yen the Japanese loss was only three men killed and two officers and 28 men wounded, although the force displaced numbered 4,000 cavalry with six guns.

The skirmishing is believed to be preliminary to a general attack on the Russian position. The Japanese commanders are determined that under no circumstances shall Gen. Kuropatkin be permitted to go to the relief of Port Arthur or to make any determined effort to raise the siege of the Russian stronghold unless he is in a position to fight and defeat the army under Gen. Kuroki. The Japanese commander now is in front of Kuropatkin and in a position to intercept his march to the south. It it is undertaken, between 150,000 and 175,000 men will seek to stop the advance.

General Engagement Expected.

It is confidently believed here that Kuropatkin will either be defeated in a general engagement or compelled to withdraw his army to the north of Liao Yang within the next week or 10 days.

No news has been received here today, so far as the public knows, of Admiral Togo's operations and this is taken to mean that the Russian squadron at Port Arthur has made no attempt to escape. It is now said on high authority that no move will be made against Vladivostok until the fate of Port Arthur is decided. Nevertheless Admiral Kamamura will see to it that the Russian vessels at Vladivostok are not permitted to escape.

Gen. Kuroki reports that a detachment of Japanese troops on Tuesday routed a battalion of Russian infantry with two guns at Hai-Machi, the Japanese losing three men killed and 24 wounded. The Japanese captured two officers and five men. The Russians left on the field 23 dead or wounded and probably lost 70 men.

Fight on Tuesday.

A Japanese detachment, dispatched in the direction of Tung-Yuan-Pu, repulsed 60 or 70 of the enemy's infantry at Lin-Cha-Tai Monday, and on Tuesday encountered six companies of Russian infantry and 300 cavalry, at Chan-Chiah-Sih. After a two hours' engagement the Japanese drove the Russians off in the direction of Tung-Yuan-Pu. The Russian casualties were 70 or 80 men killed or wounded. The Japanese lost four men killed and 16 wounded.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—(6:10 p. m.)—Gen. Kuropatkin's reinforcements are being pushed eastward. The first division, 20,000 men of the Tenth army corps, has crossed the Ural mountains and following them is a continuous stream of troop trains. The last men of the Tenth and Seventeenth corps are scheduled to reach Liao-Yang August 27. The infantry will cross Lake Baikal in ferryboats and the cavalry will ride around the circular track.

The mobilization of the first army corps is being hurried. Two regiments of the Twenty-second division are at Novgorod and one of the thirty-seventh at Pskoff, (171 miles southwest of St. Petersburg) where the reserve men will join. The two divisions expect to start for the front June 23.

Desperate Dash Planned.

There is reason to believe that the plans for the departure of the Port Arthur squadron in the event that the fall of the fortresss becomes imminent have been completed. They involve the cooperation of the Vladivostock squadron. After the blockading fleet has been engaged, the uninjured Russian ships will effect a juncture with the Vladivostock squadron and make their way to Vladivostock.

The fact that the Korean straits are mined and guarded by a Japanese torpedo boat flotilla, which has been established to the satisfaction of the admiralty here, greatly increase the difficulty of operation but the Russians probably will prefer to take chances of getting through rather than making a long journey around Japan. The attempt may occur at any favorable opportunity. The squadron is useless for the defnse of Port Arthur, while if preserved entire or in major portion even the fall of Port Arthur would be robbed of much of its importance, from the standpoint of Russia's future plans.

Fortifying St. Petersburg.

No precaution will be omitted to protect St. Petersburg against attack. The fortifications at Riga, in the southern part of the gulf of Riga and Reval, at the entrance of the gulf of Finland, have been strengthened, some new guns of the latest patterns have been mounted in the fortress of Cronstadt and a chain of water batteries, running out on either side of the shores of the gulf of Finland, will guard the entrance to the mouth of the Neva.

In addition, shore batteries have been constructed near Oranienbaum, on the gulf of Cronstadt, 19 miles from St. Petersburg, and Sestroryetsk, on the Sestra river and 17 miles from St. Petersburg, probably as a precaution against landings, as it is believed that the forts are able to stop the advance of a hostile fleet. The approaches to Cronstadt are also being mined and merchant ships are being forbidden to enter the port without a pilot to conduct them through the mine fields. Owing to the extensive work in progress at Cronstadt in connection with the preparation of the Baltic squadron the central basin, heretofore reserved for merchant ships, has been appropriated by the navy.

The Russian rules for the treatment of prisoners of war were promulgated today. They are of a most humane character, following the most advanced ideas on the subject of the care of prisoners. A war bureau for the collection and distribution of every possible kind of information concerning prisoners has been established by the Russian Red Cross society, under the presidency of Prof. De Martens, professor of international law at the University of St. Petersburg and recently president of The Hague court which decided the Pius fund claims.

The only radical innovation is the inclusion of a clause providing that the crews of Japanese merchantmen can be made prisoners of war, which is in retaliation for the action of the Japanese in holding as prisoners the crews of captured Russian merchantmen.

The rank and file of the Japanese soldier receive the same rations as Russian soldiers. The officers in charge of prisoners are particularly commanded to see that the food of the Japanese corresponds as nearly as possible with what they have been accustomed to in Japan. They will also receive the pay and will do the work which Russian soldiers do. Japanese officers who are captured will be allowed a fair amount of pocket money.

Aggi to Go Before Prize Court.

NAGASAKI, June 10.—The Norwegian steamer Aggie, which arrived June 4 from Cardiff with coal and was arrested by the Japanese June 7, has been taken to Sasebo for the decision of the prize court. The reason for her seizure is that her cargo is said to have been secretly destined for the Russians. Unable to deliver the coal at Port Arthur, it is added, her cargo was brought to Japan for sale.

RELEASE OF CAPTIVES IN MOROCCO EXPECTED

Sultan Sends His Own Son to Negotiate With the Bandit Chief.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Rear Admiral Chadwick, commanding the American naval forces at Tangier, cabled the navy department today that the captives held by Raisuli, the bandit in the Moroccan mountains, were no longer in need of medical assistance, and that therefore no surgeon would be sent from the fleet to their camp.

LONDON, June 11.—"The release of Perdicaris and Varley may be expected in a few days," says the Tangier correspondent of the Daily Mail. "Practically all of Rasuli's conditions have been accepted by the sultan, and the shereef of Wazan, who is conducting the negotiations, is satisfied that Raisuli will receive the sultan's pardon.

"I understand that the bulk of the ransom will be furnished by the deposed governor of Tangier, Abder Sadok, who leaves for Fez immediately. It is feared that a tribe inimical to Raisuli's which holds the country between Tangier and Beniaros may attempt to seize the money in transit. The United States is determined to deter further acts of brigandage."

PARIS, June 10.—The foreign office has received letters advising the French minister at Tangier. He says Mohammed el Torres, the sultan's representative at Tangier, has chosen his own son to proceed to the mountain retreat of Raisuli and present the final terms to secure the release of Perdicaris and Varley. The officials say Mohammed's choice of his son shows the sincerity of Morocco's efforts.

It was understood they were to get their positions the next day. Schwartz sent them to a railroad contractor, telling the men he had arranged for them to go to work. The contractor refused to give the men employment, and told them he had no arrangement with Schwartz.

PRESIDENT MAY CALL CHOATE TO CABINET

York lawyer who represented the Panama Canal Company in the negotiations with the government and the sale of the canal property, has also been mentioned as a possibility.

The part that will be played by Attorney General Knox when he becomes senator is proving of especial interest. It is generally considered his entrance in the senate will tend very decidedly toward keeping up the standing and ability of that body.

It seems quite certain that as soon as a place can be made on the judiciary committee Mr. Knox will be made a member of it. Senator Quay was at the time of his death chairman of the committees on organization, conduct and expenditures of the executive departments, and a member of the committees on agriculture and forestry, appropriations, Indian affairs, public buildings and grounds and territories.

It is not the rule to allow an incoming senator to succeed to the committee assignments of his predecessor, as such assignments are won by service in the senate, and the new man must take his turn at the bottom of the ladder. It is generally sought, however, to fill a vacancy by a senator from the same general section of the country which was formerly represented on the committee. Senator Quay's place on the appropriations committee, for example, is likely to go to an eastern senator, Mr. Penrose, his colleague, having been prominently mentioned for the place.

All the members of the cabinet have sent letters congratulating Mr. Knox on his selection as senator, although they all regret that he is to leave the cabinet.

Representative John Dalzell, who was one of the candidates for the place, when asked for an expression on the selection of Attorney General Knox for senator from Pennsylvania, said: "I consider the selection of Mr. Knox a wise solution of the problem. There is no question of his great ability and his election to the senate will be a credit to the state."

Robert Linton, Jr., who was formerly superintendent of the Belle Vernon factory of the company, is mentioned as likely to be assistant to Mr. Bodine.

President J. R. Johnston of the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers has called a meeting of the members of that organization at the International hotel, Niagara Falls, on next Tuesday. Some important business is to be transacted.

KNOX CERTAIN OF SUPPORT AT HOME

Would Not Have Allowed Use of Name Unless Harmony Was Sure.

WILL NOT TALK ON HIS POLICY

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 10.

"As yet I have received no official announcement as to my appointment as United States senator. The newspapers say the governor has made the appointment but until I formally accept, I am still attorney general."

Philander C. Knox smilingly made this answer to a Gazette reporter at his Valley Forge farm this evening when asked how he had spent his first day as United States senator.

All day, at frequent intervals, telegrams from friends in Pittsburgh, Washington and this city, and numerous telephone messages were received by Mr. Knox, congratulating him upon his appointment. Otherwise the day was spent quietly about the large estate. District Attorney Young arrived with a friend from New York. They were the only visitors to Mr. Knox's country seat.

When, late this evening, The Gazette reporter reached his house, a member of the family was reading aloud from an evening paper the announcement of the attorney general's appointment. Other members of the family and their guests in the cosy sitting room, made a pleasing picture as seen from the wide porch, which extends along the front of the homestead.

All Is Harmony.

"I didn't expect to be home tonight," said Mr. Knox, as he led the way to a smaller sitting room on the second floor. "I had intended to go to Washington today, but as it was the tail end of the week I decided that I could accomplish little by going down, so I'll stay home until Monday."

Asked if it was true that he called upon President A. J. Cassatt at the latter's office, Mr. Knox replied:

"No, that is incorrect. I took a short drive this morning and someone might have thought I went to the station. No more conferences. They are all over. Everything is settled."

"Have you seen the statement to the effect that the friends of a disappointed candidate outside of Allegheny county are displeased at what they term was a slight put upon their leaders?" asked the reporter.

Mr. Knox looked the annoyance his words and tone implied, as he replied emphatically:

"That is all nonsense. I understand that there is an impression abroad implying that there is a feeling other than harmony on the part of the Pittsburgh contingent toward me. If I thought that had been true and that I was going to have opposition in my own county, I never would have allowed my name to be used."

Message from Home.

This expression was borne out, it would seem, by the following telegram sent to Mr. Knox today by ex-Senator William Flinn, Chairmen T. J. Ford and M. G. Leslie:

"We extend our hearty good will in your candidacy for the United States senatorship, assuring you of our earnest support and predicting for you a long and successful term."

Similar expressions of good will were received from Mr. Knox's fellow cabinet members, from Congressman John Dalzell and ex-Congressman William H. Graham of Allegheny county, and friends all over the country.

His future policy, or his attitude in state politics, the newly appointed senator courteously but firmly declined to discuss.

"It has never been my course to outline any so-called policy and I might have and I do not think it wise now. In regard to my successor, I only know what the newspapers have said."

"The impression is, Mr. Knox, that you will represent the state, not as a party leader, but more from the standpoint of a debater and a statesman, leaving the leadership with the accompanying laying of plans to Senator Penrose."

Silent as to Policy.

"That is only an inference, and is based upon a previous knowledge of my tastes and my attitude in the past. I have never been active in politics, but, as I said before, it would be very unwise to make any expression at this time."

Discussing his taking leave with his fellow cabinet members, Mr. Knox said he did so with profound regret.

"At the end of my term of office as attorney general," he said, "I had intended to retire from public life and practice law in Pittsburgh. Until within a short time previous to the announcement of my name in connection with the senatorship that was my plan, but, at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, I reconsidered."

Mr. Knox expressed his intention of spending the summer at his Valley Forge farm. He will visit Washington next week for the purpose of laying his resignation before the president.

POLICE WANT TO QUIT IN 20 YEARS

Pension Fund Directors Will Be Asked to Reduce Service Time Five Years.

STRONG OPPOSITION SHOWN

A petition, signed by fully 90 per cent of the members of the police and detective bureaus, asking that members of the police pension fund be permitted to retire on half pay after 20 years' service will be presented to the board of directors of the organization at its next meeting. The change meets with the approval of some of the directors, but it is claimed that it will not be adopted owing to the opposition of a few of the members, led by ex-Superintendent of Detectives Roger O'Mara.

At present a policeman must serve 25 years continuously before he can retire on pension. This rule was adopted when the fund was first organized and is incorporated in the by-laws. These by-laws provide that they can only be changed by a unanimous vote of the members of the organization, and as City Solicitor Rodgers has decided that this rule is binding, it is not likely that the change will be made.

There have been many attempts to have the time limit reduced, but the first concerted effort to bring this about is now under way. A petition to the board of directors was drawn up and copies sent to the sergeants at each police station. Every policeman was asked to sign the paper, this signature to be regarded as a vote on the question.

Think It Would be Suicidal.

Every man affixed his signature with the exception of a dozen of the oldest men on the force. They assert that the change would be suicidal, as the fund would be exhausted within five years if every man who had been on the force for 20 years should retire on half pay. They also claim the change would be unfair to the men who have served the full 25 years. O'Mara is the leader of this opposition.

Under an act of assembly passed through the efforts of O'Mara and others, councils fix the policemen's salaries on a basis that allows of a deduction of $30 a year. This amount—about $15,000 a year—goes into the police pension fund and is placed in the hands of the city controller. The entire fund now totals $120,000.

Each policeman who retires is paid one-half the salary he received while in active service. This makes the lowest pension about $545 a year. The officers opposed to the change assert that about 100 men would be eligible for retirement within the next three years, which would necessitate the paying out of about $54,500 a year in pensions, at the very least.

Based on the amount now paid to the 11 men who are retired, the drain on the fund probably would be considerably higher. These 11 men draw out about $7,500 a year. This is due to the fact that Sol. Coulson and Roger O'Mara are both pensioners, each receiving $1,500 a year from the fund, as they retired when drawing $3,000 a year.

Director Moore's Position.

The proponents of the change have a friend in Director Moore, who, in explaining his position in the matter, says:

"If the fund can be kept intact, I am in favor of the change. The firemen retire after 20 years' service, and so should the policemen. We are now compiling data to find out the probable effect of reducing the retiring period to 20 years. However, should a large number of men be eligible for pensions under the 20-year rule, it will kill the whole proposition.

"Before the change can be made it will be necessary to secure the unanimous consent of the members of the fund. City Solicitor Rodgers has given me an opinion on this matter and finds that should even one man object to the change nothing can be done. I have talked with Mr. O'Mara and some of the others who oppose the amendment and find that they are open to conviction if our arguments are strong enough."

At present there are several vacancies on the board owing to changes and dismissals in the department, and it is expected that these will be filled before action can be taken.

The officers of the Police Pension Fund association held their monthly meeting yesterday morning and allowed the claim of $1,000 made by the widow of Policeman Michael Lowry, who died March 7, and a claim of the same amount made by the widow of Policeman James A. Moon, who died May 7. The firemen's disability board allowed the claim of $1,000 by Mary A. Whalen, widow of Michael Whalen. A number of minor claims for injuries were allowed. There is a balance of $121.58 in the treasury of the police pension fund and $95,401 11 in the firemen's fund.

NEGRO FREEMASONS IN FIGHT OVER A CHARTER

Dr. Boykins Claims That He Has Been Libeled and Has Four Officers Arrested.

Rebellion in the ranks of the grand lodge A. F. and A. M. of Pennsylvania, colored, has resulted in the arrest of four prominent members of the organization, including the grand master, charged with criminal libel. The informations are made beforeAlderman McMasters, by Dr. Edward W. Boykins of 44 Wadsworth street, formerly an officer in the grand lodge but at present holding a charter which empowered him to organize a rival grand lodge despite the fact that he was under suspension for 99 years by the lodge to which he formerly belonged.

The defendants are Henry Brodus, Charles Taylor, C. R. France and H. C. Patterson. The former is grand master, and the others officers of grand lodge W. M. Hiram of Pennsylvania, with headquarters on Fulton street. They waived a hearing yesterday and furnished bail for court. Boykins claims the men had a hand-bill published which was distributed broadcast, which charged him with crimes of various sorts, including embezzlement and false pretense.

One charge brought against Boykins is that he accepted money from numerous individuals for conferring on them the thirty-third degree Masonic rite, and another charge was that he defrauded one George Taylor out of his home and the savings of a lifetime. Boykins, it was also claimed, had secured his charter to organize a grand lodge from an expelled member at Washington, D. C., and that his title of charter was bogus.

Boykins denies all the charges in the circular and claims he is acting under proper authority.

FLYNN WAS DEFEATED.

Boilermakers Re-Elect John McNeil for General President.

The returns of the general election of the Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders have been announced. They show that John McNeil was re-elected grand president and William J. Gilcock grand secretary-treasurer. Thomas H. Flynn was a candidate for grand president, and the lodges which pledged him their support were debarred from voting for some cause not yet given. This has resulted in a protest and the voting will probably have to be taken again.

Smoky City lodge No. 154 will hold a meeting next Thursday evening to take action on the dispute. If the voting is proved to have been irregular, they will issue a call for another ballot.

BIGELOW RAN OUT OF HIS OFFICE

Stevenson Says Director Treated Chamber of Commerce Engineers With Discourtesy.

FAIL TO GET INFORMATION

"Director Bigelow is bent on having the people vote at the bond election in ignorance. He refuses to give any information that may enable the people to vote on the matter intelligently, and he has treated the engineers employed by the chamber of commerce with great discourtesy," said W. H. Stevenson, chairman of the special committee on municipal bond issues, yesterday.

"A few days ago W. R. Browne and Mr. Cooper, of the firm of Edeburn & Cooper, engineers, called up Director Bigelow. Browne and Cooper have been employed by the chamber of commerce to furnish an estimate of the cost and damages of the hump removal. They called at Director Bigelow's office at 10:30 o'clock and were kept waiting until 12:15, almost two hours. They were then told that the director would see them, and they walked into the director's private office.

"As they walked in they were astounded to see the director walking out of his office by the side door. They have not been able to get the information they were after, and the chamber of commerce has been compelled to employ an extra corps or two of engineers to get the data that is needed. Browne and Cooper had paid a visit to Bigelow previously, and the director had promised to give them all the information they desired. He sent them a blue-print which gave information only of the most meager kind.

"The people ought to be well informed about the cost of the hump removal. In my opinion it will be the same as the Grant boulevard, only on a larger scale. The director has not produced evidence to show that he has waivers for more than 50 per cent of the frontage of property in the hump district. Granting that he has 50 per cent of the property waived, the other 50 per cent can compel the city to lower their buildings and excavate their grounds to meet the new level of the street. The cost of this will be enormous.

"Why did Bigelow change his mind and decide not to pass the regrading ordinances, about 24 in all, until after the bond election? It is stated that action on these measures was delayed because it would be necessary to repeal them if the people voted down the bond issues. Suppose that is true, is it not an easy thing for councils to repeal an ordinance? I will tell you the real reason why these ordinances have not been passed. It is to keep the property owners of the hump district in the dark until after the election, to keep them in ignorance of the new grades of the street and how much their properties will be damaged by the cut. It will be too late after the election, when they find what they are up against, to make a fight with any effect."

Mr. Stevenson said that the chamber of commerce had intended to issue a statement to the public about the hump removal on June 29, but Bigelow's refusal to give information would cause a delay.

WATCHED NOVEL CONTEST.

Engineers and Contractors Witnessed Competition Between Rival Companies.

The pile driving contest on the South Side, which has been going on all week, has been attracting unusual interest from engineers and contractors. It comes to a close today. Yesterday afternoon a party of men of national reputations watched the race between the two competing companies. In the party were H. A. Haggard, superintendent of eastern and western terminals for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; Frank Moore of the Westinghouse company; J. A. Atwood, chief engineer of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie; Francis Remington of New York, president of the Foundation Construction Company; George S. McMunn, a Chicago engineer; A. A. Raymond of Chicago, president of one of the competing companies; Joseph H. Cranford, president of the other company, and Frank Shuman, inventor of one of the processes being demonstrated.

The race was instituted a week ago by the Pittsburgh Terminal Warehouse and Transfer Company. The novelty is that the piling is made of concrete, which has never been used in this district before, and is new to engineers and contractors. The warehouse company called the Raymond Concrete Pile Company and the Cranford Concrete Company of Washington, D. C., to come to Pittsburgh and make tests. The one to whom the decision will be given shall have a contract to sink 6,000 piles for the foundations of the series of 40 warehouses and the immense refrigerating plant to be built between Third and Fourth streets.

The contract will be awarded some time within the next two weeks, after the strength of the piling has been fully tested. The Pennsylvania company is considering its use under the piers of the elevated tracks to be run around the Point district. Wabash engineers have also been watching the progress of the competition.

More Milk Dealers in Trouble.

Director Moore is still waging war on milk dealers for adulterating their milk and using formaldehyde. Information was made against five dealers yesterday. During the last 11 months over 4,000 tests of milk have been made by the meat and milk inspectors. Of that number 187 of the tests showed adulteration and the use of formaldehyde. N. B. Critchfield, state secretary of the agriculture, called at the bureau of health yesterday and conferred with the meat and milk inspectors. He was pleased with the manner in which they have conducted their work.

ALLEGHENY GENERAL WILL SOON BE OPENED

New Hospital on North Side to Be One of the Finest in the State.

Superintendent Peter Bechtel of the Allegheny General hospital has been engaged for more than a week preparing for the opening of the structure erected on the site of the old hospital. Not for months will the formal dedication take place, but plans are being made to have at least two of the floors of the institution ready for occupancy within the next 10 days. About September 1 will see the building complete from top to bottom, according to Superintendent Bechtel, and as soon after that as possible a date for the formal opening will be set.

Contracts for furnishings were made months ago and much of the furniture has been put in during the past week. This will be finished before the end of the month, and by that time a large portion of the new hospital will be ready for use. Although the work has been done rapidly, and with few delays, workmen are still engaged in plastering and painting the interior. The power house has been finished and several of the rooms on the second floor are being used as nurses' quarters.

When completed the Allegheny General will be one of the finest hospitals in the state. In it are 85 rooms for private cases, 10 large wards and five smaller ones. The large medical and surgical wards will be equal to any in Pennsylvania. Both are on the second floor in the rear of the building. The general and private operating rooms are on the sixth floor.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhea, that, after over a third of a century's experience in curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

IT STANDS ALONE.—The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone, as the one and only remedy for these distressingly common forms of weakness, possessed of such positively specific curative properties as to warrant its makers in proposing, and binding themselves to forfeit, as we, the undersigned proprietors of that wonderful remedy hereby do, to pay the sum of $500 in legal money of the United States in any case of the above diseases in which after a fair and reasonable trial of our treatment, we fail to cure. No other medicine for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments is backed by such a remarkable guarantee; no other medicine for woman's ills is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that would warrant its manufacturers in making such an offer; no other remedy has such a record of cures on which to base such a remarkable offer.

Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and turn your back on any unscrupulous dealer who would insult your intelligence by attempting to foist upon you some inferior substitute, under the plea that "it is just as good." Insist on having the article which has a record of a third of a century of cures and which is backed by those willing to forfeit $500 if they cannot cure you.

In cases attended by a leucorrheal drain a solution of Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets should be used conjointly with the use of the "Favorite Prescription." They are sold by all druggists, or sent post-paid to any address, on receipt of 25 cents in stamps. Send 31 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. ## "Oh, Long May It Wave."

A text for next Tuesday, Flag Day—from a song that every child should be taught the moment it can turn a tune. Whether you buy a flag from us or not, don't forget that it is incumbent upon you, as a patriotic American, to have a flag flying from your home on 1904 Flag Day. Some people forget the day—some even forget the flag.

Talk to any of our people in the East Basement regarding flags. They will show you any sort of a flag you have in mind, finest of silk flags, from smallest to largest; ditto, flags of United States bunting—and this kind of a flag is the best for the breeze. Probably lower in price than you will find flags anywhere.

Finest Hats for Children for Commonest Prices.

A somewhat farfetched way of letting parents know that we are selling finest of straw hats and finest of silk sailor hats around the half price line—to be exact, some of the hats are exactly half of former prices.

Among the straw hats are pretty shapes of English sennet and Milan straw, and the silk hats represent about every style fashionable for the very youthful head.

These hats are not in the Millinery Department of West Store, but are sold in the Children's Hat Department of second floor, East. Some of the reduced prices—

At $1.50, reduced from $2.00 and $2.50, SailorHats of fine Milan straw, and also of silk.
At $2.00, reduced from $3.50 and $4.00, different shaped hats of same material.
At $3.00, reduced from $5.00 and $6.00, finest of Milan straw Sailors and Sailors in finest silk.

End-of-the-Week Millinery.

Some Splendid Half-Price Propositions.

Saturday is the logical time for buying millinery—probably because everyone likes to appear in something new on the first day of the week. Today we purpose selling prettiest Hats for women and girls at and around the half price lines.

Not all our collection is down thus in price, please observe that; but enough to give anyone unlimited choice from some of the best specimens brought out for the Summer.

If it be only a neat runabout hat that you have in mind you save money by purchasing from us; if it be a splendid hat from Paris the saving is more important. Some of our underprices—

Women who delight in Sailors with great broad brims—those with white straw that have black bands touched up with color, can buy them for 25c. Until far into this week they were 50c. This same style of hat also becomes the girl.

We are selling smartest Shirtwaist Hats for the most considerate of reductions—for instance, $2.25 Shirtwaist Hats for $1.00—$3.50 hats for $2.00—the $8.50 and $10.00 hats for $5.00.

As to Trimmed Hats, we have a large collection that are marked to almost half price. Trimmed hats heretofore $4.00, now $2.50; heretofore $5.00, now $3.60; heretofore $8.50, and $10.00, now $6.00.

But the finest proposition of them all is our handsome Paris Hats, not all, but a generous collection for half prices—at $12.50 instead of $25.00, at $17.50 instead of $35.00, at $22.50 instead of $45.00.

Trimmed Hats for girls—prepossessing in their youthful beauty—at $2.50, $3.50 and $5.00. These prices exactly half of former quotations.

Now, if you think you'll have time today to put the trimmings on a hat, we'll be glad to sell you Untrimmed Hats in all shapes and all colors of straw, at 25c from 50c, at 50c from $1.00, at $1.00 from $2.00 and $2.50.

You can choose flowers for trimming these hats—the most beautiful Paris flowers—at 10c, 25c and 50c a bunch—each price just half of what the flowers formerly sold for.

"My Commencement"—In the Book Nook.

This book will be found to be a convenient form in which to keep a record of one's commencement and all the interesting facts connected with it, including an account of the exercises, brief sketches of the teachers, the classmates, newspaper clippings, etc.

The keeping of such a record will afford a great deal of entertainment, not only at the time, but in after years, when this great occasion of youth is no longer fresh in mind—it will serve to recall many pleasant memories which would otherwise be forgotten.

The book costs $1.00.

Today 35c Stockings 25c.

This is a Saturday special in the interest of women. The stockings are made of a good grade of German lisle thread. They are thin stockings, just the kind for this time of the year, some are severely plain, others have lace ankles, in pretty patterns, tan and black.

The Go-Cart and the Baby.

In the East Basement, where Go-Carts are sold, mothers will find every sort of a Go-Cart from the little inexpensive thing that you can fold up and carry under your arm to the gorgeous affair that represents a pretty stunning infantile turn-out.

All along we have dwelt on the inexpensive carts, and this morning we want to tell you of some of the finer Go-Carts.

We have just received a rather large shipment of the notably handsome Bloch Go-Carts, all equipped with porcelain handles, and each cart having the finest of automobile gear.

These carts sell for $16.00 and on up to $45.00, and the owner of one need fear no rivalry in the way of handsomeness and elegance.

Fine Irish Linen Waists, $2.00.

But they are not a regular $2.00 waist by any means. $3.50 is the price they have been bringing all season. The linen is of a nice quality—the waist is made with tucked front, tucked back and full sleeves. Sizes from 36 to 44.

At $3.00, reduced from $5.00, sheer white Persian lawn waists—trimmed with embroidery motifs, tucked back and full sleeves. This waist buttons in the back.
At $3.50, sheer India lawn waist made with clusters of small tucks front and back, a tailor waist in every particular, even to the shirt sleeves.

New Veils and Veiling.

Saturday is a good day for veils. So many women decide the last day in the week that they would like a new one. We have learned this fact from experience, consequently, endeavoring to have an attractive showing for that day, in particular.

New Chiffon Veiling, with embroidered dotted border, in solid colors and new combinations. 50c a yard.
New summer Automobile Veils, shirred on wire with pleated frill drawn in at neck—all colors—$2.50 each.

Saturday, June 11, 1904.

The Gazette desires to call the attention of those of its readers who contemplate summer trips to the announcements of the many summer resort hotels published on page 14 of this issue.

A lively incident in the French chamber of deputies yesterday suggests that legislation abroad is often influenced in the same manner that it sometimes is in this country. Replying to an interrogation, Premier Combes declared that two millions had been offered to his son if he, the premier, would support a bill authorizing the Carthusian monks to remain undisturbed. His reply was that the emissary had better not enter his room, or he would go out the window. The only mistake of the aggressive French premier was that he consented, for political reasons, to not expose the name of the would-be briber.

Gen. Kuroki's forces are moving westward across Manchuria in sufficient force to drive the Russians from important posts. Sin-Yeng was occupied by the Japanese forces on Wednesday, according to reports from Gen. Kuropatkin to the Russian war office. If the latter has really been moving down the railroad toward the Liao-Tung peninsula with a view to relieving Port Arthur, as reported, he will find Gen. Kuroki with the first and third armies on his left flank and himself in an embarrassing situation; that is, unless he has sufficient force to oppose the combined Japanese armies in the section about Kaiping. Meantime Gen. Oku is pressing home the attack upon Port Arthur, with what success the world does not yet know.

Charles F. McKenna of Pittsburgh has received his commission as judge in the court of Porto Rico, and his appointment will almost certainly be confirmed at the next session of the senate. The objection was not to the man, but to the fact that he had been appointed without the knowledge or indorsement of the senators from this state. The senate proceeds exclusively on the principle of "I tickle you, you tickle me," and is intensely jealous of its assumed prerogatives. The president had not been aware that the senators were not consulted and as Congressman Dalzell has made the proper apologies and gone through the ceremonial forms the senate will likely give its gracious consent. Judge McKenna is worthy of the honor.

It is reported that Russia has laid mines in the Baltic to protect its home ports. If this be true, the Russian naval experts are as much in advance of necessity on the Baltic as they were behind hand at Port Arthur. Japan is not prepared to send a fleet to European waters and will not be for many months to come, if ever. Meanwhile the mines will deteriorate, if they do not explode prematurely to the damage of Russian vessels. The mining of harbors that are open to commerce might at least have been deferred until the Baltic fleet was safely started for the far east, if Russia really intends to send it there. In fine, if this report about Baltic mines can be believed, Russia must have a very severe case of what is slangily termed "the rattles."

There is no more justice in the demand of the Citizens' alliance at Victor, Col., for the disruption of the unions than there was in the attempt of the unions to prevent non-union men from working. The deportation of men from the district merely because they belong to the miners' union differs in degree only from the resort to dynamite on the other side. It is an outrage upon American liberty, but without the attendant crime of murder. In short, the reign of terror appears to be suspended in Teller county quite as completely as that of civil law. It is the right of any man to belong to a union if he so desires, and it is equally the right of any man to refuse to join a union and to work without belonging to one. There are few encouraging features in the Colorado situation.

The test made last evening of the facilities for fighting fire in downtown Pittsburgh was very satisfactory and should secure the immediate abolition of the pink slip from business district insurance policies. The Baltimore fire has served the insurance companies as a basis for heavy demands and has been used for booming all sorts of construction. But there is reason in all things. The Baltimore fire has put every city fire department on guard against such a calamity, just as the Iroquois theater disaster roused managers and city authorities to take extra precautions. The danger of a big fire is less now than before. Pittsburgh has added greatly to its means of protection, and as insurance should be based on average risk, not extreme risk, a lowering of rates is in order. As for the South Side, that is a different case. The cavalier attitude of the water company there is not reassuring and it may impose a penalty upon property owners in that section.

The Governor's Reasons.

Accompanying the appointment of Philander C. Knox to fill the unexpired term of Senator Matthew S. Quay, the governor has made a statement of his conception of the law and his duty. He properly takes into consideration the fact that he is sworn to obey and uphold the constitutions of Pennsylvania and of the United States. As the latter is supreme, the former must always be construed as subject to its terms and limitations, both being interpreted in the light of reason. Following this method, Gov. Pennypacker arrives at the right conclusion that it is his duty to appoint for the unexpired term, the provision of the state constitution having been inserted merely to provide against an appointment running over two years.

Possibly our Democratic friends may trump up objections to this view for campaign purposes, but they all know it is the right conclusion. Congress will not meet until December and the legislature will meet in January to elect a senator for the full term from March 4, 1905. To have called an extra session would have imposed upon the state a great burden of expense, with a possible failure to fill the vacancy for the coming session of congress. The appointment fills the constitutional requirement and gives the state its full representation.

We have no doubt the people of the state will indorse the governor's action. They voted to reduce the sessions of the legislature to one in two years, though, of course, giving the governor power to call extra sessions in case of emergency. Their experience with extra sessions has been unsatisfactory. Gov. Pattison preferred to follow the letter of the constitution rather than its spirit. He called the legislature to carry out provisions of the constitution. The only result was a big bill for the taxpayers to meet. Nothing was done. Gov. Pennypacker has avoided the possibility of a like fiasco by pursuing the reasonable course.

Protection and Prosperity.

A correspondent writes asking The Gazette for an expression of opinion on the following points:

Upon Mr. McKinley's accession to the presidency the necessity for issuing bonds for the maintenance of the gold reserve ceased to exist. Was this due to restoration of public confidence in our financial soundness? To the tariff or to any subsequent financial legislation? * * * Mr. Cleveland asserts that much of the gold withdrawn from the treasury was shipped abroad at a profit. If we were in such financial distress, it would appear that the demand here would have commanded greater interest here than elsewhere. * * * What means have been employed since the repeal of the silver purchase act to provide for the increased demand for money.

It is now very generally admitted by nonpartisan observers that the deficiency in public revenues was more responsible for the issue of government bonds in time of peace than distrust of our financial honesty as a nation. During the four fiscal years from 1894 to 1897, both inclusive, the expenditures of the government were about $155,000,000 larger than the income. A nation, like an individual, invites trouble when it pays out more than it takes in and is compelled to draw upon its surplus, if it has any, or go into debt if it has no available surplus. The tariff did have a direct effect upon the financial situation during the Cleveland administration when the country was selling bonds. In October, 1890, the McKinley tariff bill became a law, and in anticipation of its passage the large increase in imports of merchandise swelled the customs revenue for that fiscal year to $229,668,585, the largest of record to that date.

In 1892 the Minneapolis convention renominated Harrison and strongly indorsed the protective tariff policy. The Chicago convention that nominated Cleveland was just as strongly in favor of a tariff for revenue only. The tariff was therefore the issue of the 1892 campaign. Pending the outcome the United States bought as little foreign merchandise as possible, and customs revenue fell to $117,000,000 for that year. Cleveland was inaugurated in 1893, and the agitation began for a revision of the tariff. This agitation was prolonged until August, 1894, when the Wilson tariff bill became a law without the president's signature. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1894, the deficit in our public revenues amounted to $69,000,000 and the following year to $42,000,000.

While business was disturbed by tariff agitation our finances were unsettled by the silver agitation. The silver purchase clause of the Sherman law was repealed in November, 1893; the Wilson tariff debate dragged along through the greater part of 1894, and the famous Venezuelan message appeared in 1895. To justify the issue of bonds in times of peace, and to withdraw attention from the continuing deficits in our public revenues, the party in power not only attacked our policy with respect to foreign commerce, but undermined the confidence of our foreign creditors in the honesty of the United States as a nation. The effect was a withdrawal of credits by foreign investors. It is beyond the question whether the gold was withdrawn at a profit or not. When a creditor's faith in the honesty of a debtor is shaken, he is satisfied to save his principal at a sacrifice of profits. Foreign holders of our government and corporation bonds sold them for what they would bring and took the proceeds home in the shape of gold. This accumulation of funds abroad was responsible for interest rates falling below the parity of interest rates in this country.

The law of March 14, 1900, declaring the gold dollar to be the standard of value and establishing a separate division of issue and redemption in the treasury department, fortified by a gold fund of $150,000,000, which cannot be drawn upon for current expenses, no doubt firmly re-established confidence abroad in the finances of this country and relieved business interests at home from the incubus of the "silver question." Since the repeal of the silver purchase act two sources for maintaining the supply of money have appeared. The natural and most important is the increase in gold. In 1893 the gold coin in circulation amounted to $408,000,000 and gold certificates to $92,000,000, a total of $500,000,000. On May 1, 1904, there were $656,000,000 gold coin and $464,000,000 gold certificates in circulation, a total of $1,120,000,000. Within the same period national bank notes increased from $155,000,000 to $431,000,000. The unprecedented increase in gold furnishes its own refutation of the free silverite's argument of the insufficient supply of the yellow metal.

The Business Situation.

The business community has awaited with much interest the appearance of the government crop report, which is published this morning. In anticipation that it would be favorable there was a rally in the stock market and a decline in the grain market. The figures relating to wheat are below the average for the corresponding date last year, but the distinctly favorable feature is that there has been an improvement in the condition of winter wheat during the past month. On May 1 the government estimated the condition at 76.5 per cent, which was considerably below the 10-year average, and a large acreage was abandoned during the month of April. Yesterday the government placed the condition at 77.7, a gain of 1.2 per cent. It is the almost invariable experience that deterioration in winter wheat crop conditions occurs during the month of May. The fall between May 1 and June 1 last year amounted to almost 10 points. The condition of spring wheat is estimated at 93.4, which compares with 95.9 a year ago and 95.4 two years ago. June and July are the critical months in the spring wheat section, but this year there are grounds for the hope that the spring wheat crop will not be seriously affected by drought, for the reason that while the season was late the conditions since planting have been unusually favorable. The acreage of spring wheat is larger this year than last year, and will help to offset the abandoned winter wheat acreage.

Contraction in general trade is still in progress. Bank clearings for the United States for the past week show a decrease of 14.2 per cent, compared with the same week last year. The bulk of the falling off is still confined to the east, but the tendency toward contraction is gradually extending all over the country. The decrease outside New York for the week is 4.8 per cent. In the middle section Pittsburgh with a decrease of 24.5 per cent and Cleveland with a decrease of 21.1 per cent reflect dullness in industrial circles. The reports of railroads are to the same effect, the losses in gross earnings coming from the south and the northwest as well as from the manufacturing districts of the east.

The figures of pig iron production and consumption fully confirm the reports that have been current for several weeks past of the reaction in the iron trade. According to the compilation of the Iron Age, the capacity of furnaces in blast on the 1st inst. was 336,197 gross tons a week, which is a decrease of 32,000 tons a week compared with the May 1 figures and a decrease of nearly 52,000 tons compared with the corresponding period last year, when the rate of production reached the maximum. The decline in weekly output was accompanied with a falling off in consumption, which is reflected in the increase of about 100,000 tons during the past month in the amount of unsold stocks. The situation foreshadows a further reduction in output and consumption during the current month. However, the figures on production are unfavorable solely because the comparison is with a period when the country was establishing a new record for iron manufacture. A capacity of 336,000 tons a week in 1901 would have been looked upon as the greatest achievement on record, and this average was barely exceeded in 1902. The current business would also be regarded as highly satisfactory if it represented orders booked ahead, but because it is of a hand-to-mouth character it is looked upon as discouraging.

In financial circles there is a striking similarity in conditions prevailing at home and abroad. The demand for money is falling off and the accumulation of funds is increasing at a rapid rate. During the past three weeks, for instance, there has been a decrease in loans of the associated banks of New York of $43,000,000, and within the same period an increase in cash reserves of $11,000,000. The reports of the government banks at London, Paris and Berlin for the past week show a net decrease of $51,000,000 in loans and an increase of $10,000,000 in cash. This accumulation of funds abroad has had the effect of checking gold exports from New York, and there were no shipments this week. Discount rates are declining and are now averaging lower in all the world's great money markets than for years past.

It has not been a good week for the Democratic reorganizers. Not a new instructed vote has been placed in the Parker column, while Hearst gained six.

St. Petersburg's defenses are being strengthened. Evidently taking time by the forelock. The Japanese are not yet threatening the capital.

Carnegie's remarks about the great future of the rubber business are officially confirmed by Washington reports.

Thanks, Mr. Dreyfuss, for buying "Patsy" Flaherty for us. He seems to be the real thing.

Gen. Kuroki is active again. You can now watch for something brisk and hearty.

More showers, says the weather man. Oh, thunder! exclaim the rest of us.

Talked of in Gotham

By GEORGE C. JENKS.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—Never was there a more deserved rebuke applied to the police of this city than Justice Gaynor of the supreme court administered in a decision yesterday. A police captain in a downtown precinct, having a political grudge against a man who frequented a certain cafe, stationed policemen in the place, ostensibly to get evidence of gambling in the house. The officers annoyed the patrons so much that business fell off woefully and the cafe proprietor applied to the courts for relief. He has it. Justice Gaynor, in granting a permanent injunction restraining the captain from keeping policemen in the cafe, uttered an opinion as to the lawlessness of some police officials which will be indorsed by thousands of New Yorkers. He said, among other things equally pertinent:

"If the police are suffered to invade and raid houses and business places without warrants, they will inevitably use that as a means of extorting money. Experience shows this to be a thing not open to doubt." The captain in this case "is evidently under the dangerous delusion that he is an official of unlimited powers and free to exercise force and violence over any person or place in his precinct."

This is exactly the experience of many people in this city. The most powerful man in the precinct is the police captain and it is pitifully absurd to note the way in which solid business men, of unblemished character, will cringe to the bumptious official who has come up literally from the sidewalk to order the affairs of a district in which millions of capital are invested in various enterprises, because they know that his powers of injury are practically unlimited. Particularly is this the case with reference to managers of places of public refreshment or amusement. Let the word be passed around that "the captain" wants something, and everybody hustles to give it to him. This rule has its exceptions, of course, but Justice Gaynor believes it is general enough to warrant him in making a pretty general arraignment.

Rapid Transit Tunnel Delayed.

As the time draws near when the rapid transit tunnel should be finished according to the terms of the contract, it is evident that there will be much remaining to be done after that date, August 21. The contractor will be liable to a heavy penalty for each day of delay, but the curious fact is revealed that there is no way provided for collecting the penalty, which would amount probably to $20,000 or thereabouts.

Something Like Warden Wright.

Col. Sage, who has just sent in his resignation as superintendent of the house of refuge on Randalls island, is known by reputation all over the world as a marvelously successful prison director. He was warden of the Sing Sing state prison for five years, and in that period he introduced many reforms which have been adopted in prisons generally. His methods were strikingly like those of Col. Wright, for so long warden of the Western penitentiary in Allegheny.

He took a personal interest in the unfortunate men in his care, and was always willing to listen to complaints and to remedy evils when convinced they existed. His system employed at Sing Sing he reproduced at Randalls island, and so successfully that vigorous efforts have been made to induce him to reconsider his resignation. The colonel said today that he could not do so. He is more than 70 years of age, and he desires to end his days in retirement at his old home in the Catskills.

Miss Morton Was a Favorite.

New York endured a shock today when the news of the death of Miss Lena Morton in Paris reached this city. This is not only because Levi P. Morton is one of the most distinguished citizens of the metropolis, but on account of the prominence in society of the young woman. She was a great favorite, both in Albany and New York.

Dog Gets a Reprieve.

Jersey law is proverbially severe, but it hesitates when it is invoked against a pet dog. That was shown in Jersey City today. A black-and-tan terrier bit a letter carrier in the leg, and the man was frightened nearly into hydrophobia even before he complained to a magistrate and asked that the dog should be executed. He held the popular notion that the death of the dog might interfere with the progress of rabies in his own person.

The court granted the letter carrier's request, and had signed the death warrant, when the owner of the animal, a weeping woman, made such a heartrending plea that the dog has been reprieved. She has until next Tuesday to show why the death sentence should not be carried out. If the letter carrier is in his normal health at that time the dog may be allowed to live, but if there are any suggestions of hydrophobia in his system, then there will go one more black-and-tan terrier in the fatal gas box at the headquarters of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Woodend Drummed Out.

With due impressiveness Dr. Woodend, whose recent business difficulties were public property, was expelled from the consolidated exchange this morning. The reason given was "obvious fraud." The usual ceremonies attendant on drumming a member out of the exchange were carried out, consisting mainly of a few heavy raps of the gavel on the pulpit by the chairman, and a very serious expression on the visage of the average member. Expulsions are always unpleasant incidents of change.

John Duss Got His Hair Cut.

Here is a story about John Duss which is current along Broadway tonight, and is said to be true. It seems that the Duss orchestra holds in Madison Square garden a daily rehearsal from 11 to 2 o'clock, with a 30-minute recess at noon for lunch. At the intermission the other day Duss decided to visit a barber for a haircut. He asked the door man at the stage entrance of the garden to direct him to a good place and was recommended to a small shop in Fourth avenue.

Duss found the place, rushed in and to the lone man in charge said, "Cut my hair quick. I'm in an awful hurry. Don't talk to me for heaven's sake for I am too tired to listen." The shop man went to work and for more than 40 minutes Duss was tortured by a catch-as-catch-can haircut. When the "job" was ended Duss said to the knight of the shears:

"Are you the best barber in the place?"

"Why, no," said the hair-cutter. "I'm the bootblack. The barber is at lunch."

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Better to hunt in fields for health unbought
Than fee the doctor for a nauseous draught.
The wise for cure on exercise depend;
God never made his work for man to mend.
—Dryden.

Since womanly beauty depends largely on health and comfortable living is it not a wonder that our women do not study the laws of health more carefully and live more strictly in accordance with them?

Has it ever been that the people were so foolish as to do the things they should have left undone, and not do the things they should do?

It must have been while contemplating this condition of affairs that Puck made that famous observation: "Lord, what fools these mortals be."

And isn't it more than probable that he would say the same thing now were he called upon to express his candid opinion concerning the people of today?

The main trouble with the masses appears to be plain foolishness.

Foolishness, or folly, does not indicate a lack of knowledge, but of wisdom.

Ignorance is a lack of knowledge.

The biggest and the worst of fools are loaded to the muzzle with knowledge, but are short on wisdom.

Wisdom, you know, is the product of knowledge that has been digested and assimilated.

It would seem, therefore, that the average man and woman is long on knowledge and short on wisdom, since they know so much more than they can use to advantage. Or is it because they are too indifferent or too lazy to try to make good use of their knowledge?

All the worse for the world if that is the present or the coming state of man.

* * * * *

Nature has a handy way of getting rid of people when they become nuisances.

For instance, when people become too numerous and too worthless she allows them to infect themselves and die. Thus something like 100,000 Filipinos have been dying annually from cholera, and in the same way have hundreds of thousands of Moslems and other religious fanatics been removed from the face of the earth, which they were encumbering to no good purpose.

According to history less than half of those going on those long pilgrimages to Mecca lived to get back home, and the plagues they bred spread far and wide so that everyone of these pilgrimages to the tomb of Mohammed meant the death of more people than the whole number of pilgrims.

The world is not as much troubled with great plagues as in times past. This is largely due to modern modes of travel, to common sense usages and to a more general practice of common decency in the matter and the manner of living.

It pays well to live decently—pays well here and hereafter.

The poor, little persecuted and badly abused microbe may yet be able to prove its innocence of the endless charges that have been brought against it, if not to prove an alibi outright. Although it may not deny being present during and after the trouble, it may claim that it was not there previous to, or at the beginning of it.

Anyway the microbe has been playing the part of scape-goat long enough to justify it, and its friends, in kicking vigorously enough to unveil the real culprit—the individual himself. Such a kick is about due, and when it comes good and hard the general public may find itself greatly benefited, or at least in a position to be benefited.

If each individual understood and fully believed that he held the key to his own health, comfort and happiness, a great change for the better would soon take place.

And if every mother believed that her sons and daughters could be developed into handsome, healthy, happy men and women there would be more who would spare the trouble or begrudge the time necessary to the accomplishment of this noble work.

Nor would any woman neglect the means necessary to render herself handsome, healthy and happy if she could be made to believe that all this is possible, as it is.

* * * * *

You may have thought sometimes what an awful wicked world this is, anyway, and then again thought what a good sort of a world to allow us to do as we please on the one condition that we assume all responsibility for the results of our conduct.

The world is full of sunshine for all who keep on the sunny side; but those who prefer doing so may keep shady, or even hide in the dark.

This recalls that clever old song, "Reuben and Cynthia," which runs as follows:

"Reuben I have long been thinking
What a good world this might be,
If the men were all transported
Far beyond the Northern sea."

"Cynthia, I have long been thinking
What a fine world this would be,
If we had some more young ladies
On this side the Northern sea."

"Reuben, I'm a poor lone woman,
No one seems to care for me;
I wish the men were all transported
Far beyond the Northern sea."

"I'm a man without a victim,
Soon I think there's one will be,
If the men are not transported
Far beyond the Northern sea."

"Reuben, what's the use of fooling,
Why not come up like a man?
If you'd like to have a 'lovyer,'
I'm for life your 'Salty Ann.'"

"Oh, my gracious! Oh, my gracious!
What a queer world this would be
If the men were all transported
Far beyond the Northern sea."

"Reuben, now do stop your teasing,
If you've any love for me,
I was only just a-fooling,
As I thought, of course, you'd see."

"Cynthia, I will not transport you,
But will take you for a wife;
We will live on 'milk and honey;'
Better or worse, we're bound for life."

Political Drift

A delicious political breeze is wafted from the far-famed blue grass of Kentucky. A state convention has been held, and great have been the doings thereof. We pass by the platform, which demands all sorts of things; by the wrestle of contending forces for control of the Democratic organization; by the attempt to keep alive the hatreds engendered by the killing of one William Goebel, a man who had seized upon the governorship, an office to which he had not been elected and by the declaration of Senator Blackburn that the Democratic party of Kentucky is toiling into the grasp of a machine. Think of it—a "machine" in Kentucky! All these things we leave for the Kentuckians to dwell upon and talk over in such hours as they devote to politics, which are generally believed to be somewhat numerous. Rather let us direct attention to the humorous points of the convention, which reached their pinnacle when the delegates were confronted with the following addition to the levity of a nation which came in the form of a resolution: "The Democratic party in Kentucky in convention assembled affirms its faith in and adherence to the great and fundamental principles of Democracy as expounded by Jefferson, exemplified by Jackson and ably defended by Bryan." The "fundamental principles of Democracy as expounded by Jefferson, exemplified by Jackson and ably defended by Bryan." What a comedy entertainment the Kentucky Democrats must have been attending. One wonders if their convention did not adjourn with all joining hands in a breakdown and singing:

"Kentucky, oh, Kentucky!
The land where I was born,
Where the corn is full of kernels
And the colonels full of corn," or words to that effect.—Philadelphia Inquirer (Rep.).

William J. Bryan may, as his Democratic enemies assert, be moldering in the grave, but it is certain that his soul is marching on. Colorado's Democratic state convention, just held, did not instruct for anybody, but it indorsed the Kansas City platform. Of the states and territories which have held conventions many have either sanctioned the Kansas City deliverance or will do so in the St. Louis assemblage in July. These are California, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Rhode Island and Wyoming. Of course, a still larger number of state conventions already held have either rejected or ignored the Kansas City platform, but enough of them stick to the 1900 outgiving to make a good deal of trouble for the Democrats in the national gathering. There is no longer any doubt that Mr. Bryan is still a personage of considerable consequence in his party. He has been read out often by eastern members of the Democracy, but the astute leaders of the party in the east as well as in the west know that he is a personage to be reckoned with.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Rep.).

Eighteen states, 10 of them in the south, have not held conventions to select delegates to the Democratic national convention. In four weeks the big gathering will be pulled off at St. Louis, and these four weeks are big with possibilities for the Democracy. If it does the wise thing and nominate its logical nominee, Judge Parker, there is great hope that he can be elected. To throw him down now would be a tactical blunder of which the party should not be guilty. The avoidance of this is in the hands of the south. Three southern states—Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee—will vote for Parker and sanity. South Carolina is uncertain. Mississippi will instruct for the New York jurist. Beyond this no one can make a safe bet as to how any commonwealth in this section will go. We believe that the sentiment of the people of this section as a whole is favorable to Parker, but the "dark horse" idea has spread at an alarming rate and it should not be surprising if two-thirds or more of the 18 states were to elect uninstructed delegations. Over-night changes in politics are of frequent occurrence in this republic, and they seem to be the order of the day now. They may make Parker's nomination unanimous and they may defeat it easily.—Memphis Commercial Appeal (Dem.).

Closer than a brother, fastened with hooks of heaviest steel, is William Jennings Bryan to the Democratic party. The mistake in Chicago eight years ago—conservative Democrats are likely to regard the crime of '96 as far more awful than that of '73—demands its full toll of retribution. It required but one convention to make Mr. Bryan the leader of the Democratic party; it would seem that the very disruption of a great political organization is necessary to depose him from leadership. No wonder the leaders feel that cleft sticks await them, no matter what avenue they try to take. If they refuse to recognize Bryan at St. Louis next month, if they decline to listen to his demands as to wording of platform and pronouncement of principles, he and his say frankly they will leave the "plutocratic wing of the Democracy" to its own devices, and that means defeat as surely as the sun shall rise on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Granting Bryan an inch of expression in the platform, an ell of selection in the candidate, and so far as the effect on the public is concerned the leaders might as well let the Nebraskan proclaim the principles and name the standard bearer. No man with the Bryan taint can be elected president of the United States. The mischief of it is that no Democrat without the Bryan support has any chance at the polls. And there you are.—Cleveland Leader (Rep.).

The Brooklyn Eagle, the paper which first proposed the nomination of Mr. Cleveland this year, deprecates raising the tariff issue, makes unjust allusions to the Wilson tariff and frankly confesses that it sees no way of revising the tariff without doing more harm than good, and it would be very glad to "stand pat." That is what the Republicans are doing, and if the Democrats feel the same way about it there is no reason why they should hold a convention and put up a ticket. The Republicans will allow them to vote for Mr. Roosevelt. Of course there are other issues, but the Eagle does not make it clear what they are. Certainly the Democratic party is not going to attack the single gold standard, and the Eagle would not advise it to. We see no chance of the tariff being let alone even if the Democrats should agree to say nothing about it. There is so much demand for revision inside the Republican party that its state conventions are declaring that rates of duty will be changed to meet altered conditions, and unofficially prominent Republicans are promising the insurgents that the tariff shall be revised two years hence.—Philadelphia Record (Dem.).

Evidently the Bryan element in New York state does not intend to be entirely left out of the reckoning. It has issued a call for a convention to oppose the nomination of Judge Parker, and the call is signed by a great many persons of considerable influence in the Democratic party. This is a different menace from that which comes from Tammany. It is well understood that, no matter how much Tammany may oppose the nomination of a candidate, when the nomination is once made it is not very difficult to bargain for the support of that organization and to get it. This has been the experience in many campaigns, and in all probability is what will happen again. It is always unsafe to look to Tammany to oppose the election of a Democratic presidential nominee. It will be very different with the organization of the Bryan element in the party. It will have nothing to lose, since it clearly has no future, and it will find particular pleasure in the mischief it can make in retaliation for the mischief done it. It can do this more effectively in New York than anywhere else. The Democrats are looking hopefully to that state. They are confident that with Judge Parker they can carry it, but they understand very well that they cannot expect to do it with the least division among their voters. This new movement, which is not at all surprising, is a menace not only in New York, but in all the country. It has every indication of organizing for a bolt of the Bryan element of the party and is more than likely to spread, and to be led by Bryan in person after the national convention has done its work.—Philadelphia Press (Rep.).

consideration, and promptly at 1 o'clock traffic, including street cars in Fifth avenue from St. Pierre street to Liberty street, will be suspended and ropes stretched from Liberty to Grant street. At that hour Col. A. J. Logan, chief marshal of the parade, with a staff of 30 mounted assistants, will give the command to move forward and the column, made up of nearly 7,000 men, will proceed out Fifth avenue to St. Pierre street and thence to Schenley park.

One hour will be consumed in the march. Arriving at the monument the visiting guests and those honored with invitations, Mrs. A. L. Hawkins and family, the brothers of the late colonel, and the speakers will take their places in the music pavilion. The Tenth regiment and the Tenth Regiment association, war veterans, and Fifteenth Pennsylvania cavalry, will be given seats directly in front of the stand. There will be seating accommodations for about 10,000 people. The troops will pass in review before the monument, which is about 500 feet distant from the pavilion.

Will Fire a Salute.

W. J. Diehl, chairman of the general monument committee, will open the exercises by introducing Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart, who will act as chairman. This officer will then introduce Chaplain J. L. Milligan, who will make a brief prayer. Clarence Burleigh will be the first regular speaker. He will make an address on behalf of the memorial association. Governor Pennypacker, who will likely deliver the address of the occasion, will in addition perform the duty of turning the monument over to the city. It will be accepted by W. B. Rodgers, city solicitor, who will act for Mayor Hays. Battery B will fire a salute and the ceremonies will be at an end. It is thought that about three hours will be required for the speeches.

HON. WILLIAM J. DIEHL, Chairman of the commission that has had in charge the erection of the Hawkins memorial.

Governor Pennypacker will then drive to the Schenley where an informal reception will be held, and he will leave the city at 7 p. m. for Harrisburg. The troops will return to their quarters. Band concerts will be the chief amusement of the evening. There will likely be a concert at the Schenley hotel, one at the Lincoln and one at the barracks of the Eighteenth regiment, Forbes street and Craft avenue. Owing to the nature of the ceremonies at the park, the visitors will be entertained only informally.

First Troops to Arrive.

The first troops to arrive were two battalions of the Ninth infantry and one battalion of the Thirteenth regiment under the command of Col. C. Dow Dougherty. The troops left Wilkesbarre and Scranton early yesterday morning reaching here at 6:25 p. m. over the Pennsylvania railroad. The train was run down Liberty stret to Fourth street where the command was met by Maj. Lew Anshutz, quartermaster of the Second brigade. Shortly afterward headquarters were established at the Hotel Lincoln while the men were quartered in the Exposition music hall. There were 681 men and officers, including Alexander's band from Scranton. Last evening the band gave a concert at the Lincoln.

At 11 p. m. the Fifth regiment under Col. Rufus Elder came in over the Pennsylvania and went into barracks at old city hall. Late in the afternoon word was received by Maj. Anshutz that the Sixteenth regiment under Col. Willis J. Hulings would arrive at 2 o'clock this morning. Arrangements were accordingly made to meet the troops and accompany them to the Kaufman building in Ninth street.

Brig.-Gen. John A. Wiley, commanding the Second brigade, arrived in the city yesterday morning and immediately opened headquarters at the Seventh Avenue hotel. During the evening Gen. Wiley and staff were guests at a dinner given at the Hotel Schenley by Maj. W. Fred Reynolds. Those present were: Maj. J. R. Robertson, assistant adjutant general; Maj. Samuel W. Jeffries, brigade inspector; Maj. Lew A. Anschutz quartermaster; Maj. E. B. McCormick, judge advocate; Maj. S. C. Milligan; Capt. W. O. McNary and Capt. Earle Marvin.

Honor Guests' Arrival.

The remaining regiments will arrive here early this morning. The Third regiment, which will come intact, will go under canvas on the campus of the Eighteenth regiment remaining there until Sunday morning. The Tenth and Fourteenth regiments will not have regular headquarters.

The first guests to arrive this morning will be Governor Pennypacker and staff and Gen. Charles Miller. They are expected to reach East Liberty at 7:04 a. m. and will be met by Col. F. E. Patterson and will be driven direct to the Hotel Schenley. Col. Chambers of the governor's staff reached here last night. With the party this morning will be Gen. Stewart and Gen. Chambers McKibbin.

Mrs. Hawkins, accompanied by several friends and relatives will arrive at 11:25 a. m. over the Panhandle from Washington, Pa. She will be met at the Fourth avenue station by members of the committee and driven direct to the Schenley where she will remain until time for the ceremonies. The brothers of the late colonel will have headquarters at the Monongahela House. There will be 17 in all in the Hawkins party. Mrs. Hawkins, it is expected, will return to her home immediately after the exercises.

The special reception committee with Capt. W. S. Brown as chairman will meet at the Schenley at 10 o'clock this morning and will remain there until time for the parade. The governor and his staff with the members of the general committee will leave the hotel in carriages and drive to the point of formation via Grant boulevard. Mayor Hays and other city officials will take their carriages either at the city hall or the Frick building. The reception committee will also act as information bureau.

2. In compliance with general orders No. 1, issued by the chief marshal of the parade, Col. A. J. Logan, the respective organizations of this command will report promptly on time at 12:30 o'clock p. m. at the following points:

Sixteenth regiment—On Fourth street, right resting on Liberty avenue, extending towards the river.
Ninth regiment—On Duquesne way, right resting on Fourth street, and will take position in column in rear of Sixteenth regiment.
Eighteenth regiment—On Fifth street, right resting on Liberty avenue, and will take position in column following the Ninth regiment.

By command of
BRIG. GEN. JOHN A. WILEY.
J. R. ROBERTSON, Asst. Adjt. Gen.

The three battalions from the Ninth and Thirteenth regiments, under the command of Col. Dougherty, will increase the strength, to say nothing of the veterans of various classes. At the last moment the Sons of Veterans announced that they could not participate.

A movement has been started in Uniontown by Lieut.-Col. Everhart Bierer of the Tenth regiment for a public subscription to make up the deficiency in the cost of the monument to Col. Hawkins and the expenses at Schenley park.

COL. ALBERT J. LOGAN, Who Will Be Chief Marshal of Today's Big Parade.

WORK SOON STARTS ON PENNSYLVANIA STATION

Contract Awarded for Foundation Plans for Building Have Been Prepared.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—Work will shortly be started on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's huge terminal station, between Thirty-first and Thirty-third streets and Seventh and Ninth avenues. The contract for the excavation work and retaining walls have been awarded to Isaac A. Hopper & Son, who within the past few years erected in New York the Hotel Netherland, the substructure of the custom house and the new power house for the Metropolitan Street Railway Company.

The Pennsylvania station proper will be erected on the eastern portion of the site, facing Seventh avenue. To afford plenty of room the building will be sent back a distance of 50 feet from the present house line. The plans for the station have been prepared by McKim, Mead & White. The facade comprises a long row of doric columns, with a great entrance in the center, and with two smaller ones at either end. The general style of architecture is severely classic.

CATARRHAL NERVOUSNESS.

A Condition Known as Systemic Catarrh---A Congressman's Indorsement.

DR. G. B. CROWE, a physician and a very influential man in Alabama and chairman of the Populist State Committe, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, says:

Washington, D. C.

"Peruna is a most valuable medicine. It affords me unlimited pleasure to testify as to the merits of your remedy as a catarrh cure. I have used it as such and find it is of very great benefit when my nervous system is run down. I heartily recommend Peruna to all whose nervous systems are deranged."—G. B. Crowe, M. D.

The nervous system is the source of all our bodily powers, mental or physical.

The brain and spinal cord generate the power and the nerve fibres convey the power to every part of the body.

It is the nerves that give the heart power to beat; it is the nerves that give the arteries the power to contract, and thus regulate the flow of blood through them.

Each artery is provided with an elastic or muscular coat, which is capable of contracting or expanding so as to permit more or less blood to pass through, according to the needs of the body.

When the nerves are paralyzed or weakened this contractile power of the blood vessels is wholly or partly destroyed.

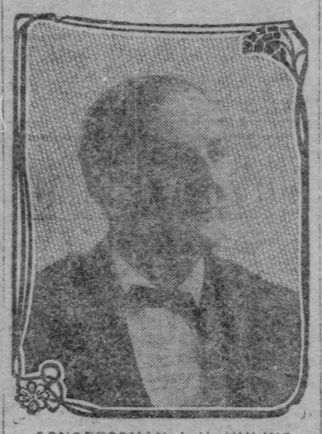
This produces congestion, especially of the mucous membrane lining the various organs of the body.

When this congestion continues for some time it is known as chronic catarrh.

The congestion may occur in the mucous membrane lining the nose, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels, kidneys and pelvic organs.

Whenever it occurs it produces the same condition—chronic catarrh.

J. H. Huling, ex-member of Congress from West Virginia, writes:



CONGRESSMAN J. H. HULING.

"Peruna as a cure for catarrh and a tonic of most serviceable excellence is beyond all question, as has been proven by many of my friends, who have been benefited by its use."—J. H. Huling, Charleston, W. Va.

LEON J. CHARLES, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, WAS VERY NEAR NERVOUS COLLAPSE—SAVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Leon J. Charles, Attorney-at-Law, Winslow, Arizona, writes:

"For a man taken up with the daily routine, and rushed and pushed constantly to do thirty hours' work in twenty-four, there will invariably come a time when nature demands her due. I was on the edge of just such a breakdown when Peruna was recommended to me, and proved a helper and a friend. It seemed impossible at the time to take a vacation, and yet the constant brain fag seemed to compel it. Peruna built up the broken down system, restored me to a normal condition, and through its use I was enabled to continue my work. I have learned to appreciate Peruna very highly, and advocate it as a safe, proper and indeed necessary medicine to every business man who is worn out, tired and sick."—Leon J. Charles.

The symptoms of catarrhal nervousness are:—A foreboding of calamity, a sense of something awful about to happen, twitching of the eyelids, moving brown specks before the eyes and metallic ringing in the ears, sour stomach after eating, with belching of gas, a feeling of great weight in the stomach, morbid fear of leaving home, a constant desire to talk of symptoms, chills and hot flashes, hands and feet usually cold and clammy, general tendency to coldness and dryness of the skin of the whole body, neuralgic headache, nervous chills, hysteria, sinking and faint spells, distressing palpitation of the heart, defective eyesight, total inability to read, write or do any business, urine abundant, without color, loss of flesh, sleeplessness and sexual excitability. Some of these symptoms are present in every case.

All that is claimed for Peruna is that it cures catarrh, wherever located, by its action on the vaso-motor system of nerves. That it is a specific for that phase of catarrh called catarrhal nervousness the accompanying letters show:

Mr. T. W. Scott, Custom House, San Francisco, Cal., writes:

"Some time ago, suffering from indigestion, loss of sleep, and what might be termed general exhaustion, I was recommended to try Peruna, which I did, and found that it did all that is claimed for it."

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

GUFFEY EXPECTED IN PARKER CAMP

Judge's Supporters Feel Assured of Pennsylvania's Sixty-Eight Votes.

CLEVELAND HAS FOLLOWING

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, Herald Building, Herald Square. NEW YORK, June 10.

Assurances have been given to the Parker leaders in this state that the 68 votes of Pennsylvania in the Democratic national convention will go to the New York candidate.

Col. James M. Guffey of Pittsburgh came to this city today and talked with Judge Parker's managers. Col. Guffey was one of the most prominent members of the conference held last week at the Holland house of the representatives of the unpledged delegations. While he was still non-committal today regarding the action of the Pennsylvania selection, the friends of Judge Parker have no uneasiness on the subject.

There would be no surprise among the men who are most familiar with the situation if Col. Guffey should be chosen chairman of the Democratic national committee, although he has declared he is not a candidate for that office. There was also talk among some of Mr. Hill's friends tonight of the advisability of asking Senator Gorman to take the chairmanship of the national committee.

William F. Sheehan returned from St. Louis today and talked with both David B. Hill and with Col. Guffey. Mr. Sheehan brought news from the west that progress has been made toward choosing a candidate for vice president. Several names are under consideration, but it is deemed advisable to wait until the opinions of all the leaders can be obtained before rendering a decision.

Preference for Parker.

Notwithstanding the fact that Col. Guffey's control of the Pennsylvania delegation is conceded, many of the delegates announce plainly their preference for Judge Parker as the Democratic candidate. Many of them, it is announced tonight, had informed the Parker managers that the delegation would surely be for him, although they are content to remain silent until Col. Guffey gives the signal. This is especially so in relation to the delegates in the western section of Pennsylvania. This condition is reflected in a number of responses received to inquiries addressed to some of the leading members of the delegation respecting their attitude on the Parker question. The Philadelphia delegates made the following responses:

Charles P. Donnelly—"I am in accord with Col. Guffey's views."

John Cadwalader, Sr.—"I have expressed my preference for Judge Parker and repeat it."

William C. Bennett—"I am for Judge Parker."

Emanuel Furth—"I am for Cleveland first and all the time, but I do not think he will be nominated. Judge Parker would be the next choice."

Robert E. Pattison—"We are bound by the unit rule, and I decline to express any opinion."

Hearst Must be Barred.

Edward F. Bennis—"My personal leaning is toward Judge Parker, but I believe in the unit rule. We should make it impossible for a man of the Hearst or Bryan type to run away with the convention. Any conservative man will satisfy me."

Thomas J. Gavaghan—"I have regarded Mr. Cleveland, who is my first choice, as unavailable, and have therefore leaned to Olney. I shall be satisfied, however, with any conservative man of the Olney, Parker or McClellan type."

John J. Green—"I am in favor of a good man."

Albert H. Ladner—"My choice would be Cleveland, but otherwise I will not commit myself. I understand Parker is regarded as a strong man."

B. Gordon Bromley—"My preference is for the most available man who can insure success to the Democratic party and who will carry into practice Democratic principles."

William H. Peffer, Carlisle—"I am for Pattison first. My second choice is Parker."

B. F. Meyers, Harrisburg—"My preference for president is Mr. Parker."

READY FOR MEDICS.

University of Pennsylvania Dedicates the Largest Medical Laboratory in the Country.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—In the presence of a distinguished body of physicians, educators and public men, the University of Pennsylvania this afternoon dedicated the largest and what is considered the best-equipped medical laboratory in the country.

The exercises were opened by J. Vaughan Merrick, one of the trustees of the university, who delivered an address presenting the building which was accepted on behalf of the trustees by Provost Charles C. Harrison. Dedicatory addresses were made by Dr. H. P. Bowditch, professor of physiology, Harvard medical school; Dr. R. H. Crittenden, director of Sheffield scientific school, Yale university; Dr. George Dock, professor of medicine, Michigan university, and Dr. Horatio C. Wood, professor of therapeutics, materia medica and pharmacy, University of Pennsylvania.

The construction of the building has occupied nearly four years, and has cost about $700,000.

HANNA'S PORTRAIT ALONE IN CONVENTION HALL

CHICAGO, June 10.—(Special.)—Only one portrait picture is to be on view in the national Republican convention hall in the Coliseum. Out of respect for the memory of the late Senator Marcus A. Hanna, national party chairman, his portrait is to be the only one provided. At a proper stage of the first session of the convention a huge likeness, now being painted on canvass, is to be unfurled to view. The picture is copied from a photograph made in Chicago. Sergeant-at-Arms Stone has planned today to increase the seating capacity of the building, bringing it up to 9,000.

NEW DANCES RECOMMENDED BY TEACHERS AT CONVENTION

CLEVELAND, O., June 10.—The newly-elected officers of the International Dancing Teachers' association were installed today. The new dances recommended by the association are the "La Belle," a schottische by J. R. Beauman, Albany, N. Y.; "Looking Backward," a schottische by James F. Lindley of Auburn, N. Y.; "The Litchfield" by J. G. Beckley, Canaan, Conn. A committee from this association will meet a committee of the National Dancing association in St. Louis on Monday to discuss the question of consolidation.

SCHEET WILL AGAIN LEAD PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Philadelphia orchestra today the committee re-engaged Fritz Scheet as conductor of the orchestra for the coming season of 1904-5 and John Mahnken as general manager. Mr. Scheet has been conductor of the orchestra since its organization in 1900, while Mr. Mahnken has been identified with it the past year.

MINERS APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT

return to Cripple Creek until the military rule has ben abolished.

"The conditions in the district at present are such that I do not feel it best to hold any court there. I shall hold court here for a week for Judge Lindsay, who has gone east.

"It is known among all the officials who have left Teller county that those officials who were caught there were forcibly taken before a committee, and were asked to resign their offices. They were asked to sit down at a table on which two ropes, with the hangman's noose tied in the ends, were lying."

COLORADO SPRINGS, COL., June 10.—Acting under the orders of Adjt-Gen. Sherman Bell of the state national guard a special train was made up shortly after noon today in the Short Line yards at Victor for the deportation of 76 union miners. The train was composed of a combination baggage car and two day coaches.

Almost immediately the work of loading the men began. They were marched to the train between heavy lines of military and deputies. A crowd of fully 1,-000 people had collected to see the men placed on board. Among the spectators were relatives of the deported men, and the scenes were very affecting. Mothers, sisters and sweethearts cried good bye and tried to push through the lines for a parting handshake.

Mayor Harris, of this city, had been informed of the decision to deport the men, and immediately took steps to see that none of them landed in Colorado Springs. Under his instructions a large force of officers and deputy sheriffs met the special train at 6:10 tonight for that purpose. No attempt was made, however, to unload the men here, arrangements having previously been made to send them to the Kansas state line over the Santa Fe railroad, because of protests made against taking them to Pueblo or Denver and leaving them there.

The train stopped long enough at this place to give the soldiers time to eat. The deported men had rations of beans and bread on board. Another party of exiled men will be sent out of the district tomorrow.

Sixty men confined in the Cripple Creek bull pen were taken to the county jail today and charges of murder were placed against them.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 10.—Deportations are the order of the day. Gen. Sherman M. Bell, military commander, has ordered that 97 members of the miners' union shall be taken outside of Teller county on a special train in accordance with the recommendations of the citizens committee which examined them. This committee was in session nearly all night investigating the cases of 100 other union men who are confined in the Victor armory, and submitted another report to Gen. Bell today, recommending further deportations.

"Within 48 hours this district will be rid of all agitators and other objectionable men," said Gen. Bell today. "One deportation after another will be made until none of the men who have terrorized the district so long will be left here. We intend to continue arresting men who are not wanted here, and they will be run out as fast as possible. The unionists are scared and many are leaving the country of their own volition to avoid arrest and incarceration. There are still some desperate characters among the hills, whom we intend getting no matter what the cost."

Sounds are out scouring the hills in search of certain men who are wanted in connection with the Independence assassinations. Telegrams have been sent to sheriffs and chiefs of police at outside points, asking them to watch for these persons whose names are not made public.

The woman's auxiliary of the miners union has been forbidden by the military authorities to hold meetings.

Politician Is Banished.

Joseph Hamilton, chairman of the Democratic county central committee, was called before the citizens deportation committee today and was asked concerning his sympathy with unionism. Mr. Hamilton acknowledged that he believed in unions and he was told that he must leave the camp within the next four days. He was allowed this reprieve because of his standing in the community and because he is a member of the Masonic fraternity. Mr. Hamilton was one of the delegates from this county to the recent state convention in Pueblo.

The committee having in charge the petition being circulated among the merchants and business men pledging themselves not to employ union labor, ordered the expunging of the American Federation of Labor from the list of objectionable unions, because the printers, pressmen, stereotypers and newspaper writers are affiliated with that body and to place the federation under the ban would necessarily involve the suspension of the Cripple Creek Times and the Evening Star, which employ union forces.

Individual unions will be tolerated, it is conceded, if they are conducted on conservative lines and do not give aid, directly or indirectly, to the Western Federation of miners. This war against unions is to be extended, the organizers of the movement say, to every city and town in the district.

Women Plead With Guards.

All day long a line of women plainly dressed and showing tear-stained faces besieged the "bull pen" here and at Victor, begging the armed guards for permission to see husbands, fathers, brothers and sweethearts. Admittance was denied during the forenoon, but all callers were allowed to see and talk with the prisoners in the afternoon. The prisoners are being supplied with good food and plenty of it, but the women brought them baskets of food and buckets of liquid, and changes of clothing.

George R. Kyner, editor of the Victor Record, intends getting out his paper under military protection tomorrow. When his plant was wrecked, J. R. Karr, proprietor of the Cripple Creek Star, tendered him the use of the Star plant. Kyner accepted and made preparations to publish his newspaper today, but a committee of citizens waited on Karr, informing him that if he permitted Kyner to use the Star plant it would be wrecked. Under the circumstances Kyner could not use the Star plant. He ran off a single sheet and sent it through the mails in order to protect his contract. Today Gen. Bell promised him military protection in using the Star plant, and he accepted the proposition.

Detectives are looking for Victor Poole and Sherman Parker, who left the camp after the Independence explosion. Officers in the employ of the Mine Owners' association say that Poole and Parker purchased tickets over the Rock Island railroad, Poole for McCun, Kas., and Parker for Kansas City, and boarded a train at Colorado Springs several hours after the explosion.

NO PARALLEL EXCEPT THE MOLLIE MAGUIRES

So Declares Mine Owners' Secretary of the Western Federation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CRIPPLE CREEK, COL., June 10.—Clarence C. Hamlin, secretary of the Cripple Creek District Mine Owners' association gave out a statement today, in reply to a telegram from a New York newspaper asking him as "head of the vigilantes" to present his side of the labor troubles here. Mr. Hamlin says among other things:

"Labor leaders attribute these troubles to the defeat of the eight-hour law in Colorado. The fact is that we have been working an eight-hour-day for 10 years, paying a minimum wage of $3, and an average wage of about $4 a day. The actual working time of a miner is but about seven hours. No grievance was lodged against the operators when the strike was called, and had the question been left to the miners themselves, 90 per cent would have voted against it. This strike is due to the fact that the striking power has been taken from the union members and lodged in the hands of a few leaders, criminals themselves, and dependent on crime to attain their ends.

"While this strike is called a sympathetic one, to aid certain millmen, most of them also working an eight-hour day, its real purpose was to compel every miner in this district to join the Western Federation of Miners or leave the country. This organization has a record of lawlessness, murder, arson and dynamiting in Coeur d'Alene, Butte, Leadville, Idaho Springs, Telluride, Cripple Creek and elsewhere, extending over a period of 10 or 15 years, which should appall humanity. The only parallel to it can be found in the Mollie Maguires of Pennsylvania, and their members were lawabiding citizens compared with the organization with which we have to deal.

"Since Monday's calamity, we would close every mine in this district for 10 years rather than let a single member of this organization work or live here. The fact that no lawlessness has been committed since the outrages of Monday, and that every good citizen is standing at teh right hand of the sheriff in his endeavor to maintain the law and to suppress this lawless organization, speaks volumes for the patience and law-loving qualities of the people of this community. There is now no legal question involved in this controversy other than that of the right of a community to purge itself of a criminal organization whose very existence is a standing menace to the lives and property of those whose only offense is that they claim the right to work.

"Our fight has not been against unionism as such, but against criminal organization, and it will not be discontinued until no member of this organization is left in Teller county."

CRUEL-HEARTED CRAIG.

Rejoiced at Death of the Victims of the Dynamite Explosion.

VICTOR, COL., June 10.—In the investigation by the jury empanelled by Coroner Hall to inquire into the explosion at Independence station Monday, when more than 20 men were killed or crippled, a sensation was caused by C. C. Hataway, a carpenter, who lives within 300 feet of where the explosion occurred. He said that while hurrying to the place he met a man and asked him what was the matter. He received this reply:

"Oh, nothing; only a lot of scabs going to ——."

At that instant the witness, in stepping over a gully, fell directly on one of the victims. He did not know who the man was who had used the language, as it was still dark, but later on heard him use about the same words to another person and was told that the man's name is Joe Craig.

VERDICT OF THE JURY.

It Lays Murder of Non-Union Miners at Western Federation's Door.

VICTOR, COL., June 10.—The jury impaneled by Coroner Hall to investigate the killing of the non-union miners at Independence last Monday, returned a verdict tonight, which says, among other things:

"We further find that said crime is one of similar crimes designed and committed in the Cripple Creek district during the past few months, and perpetrated for the purpose of intimidating non-union miners and thereby preventing them from working; and that said crimes are the result of a conspiracy entered into by certain members of the Western Federation of Miners, and known, incited and furthered by certain officers of that organization."

RELATIVES OF ACCUSED ACTRESS ARE MISSING

Woman Related to "Ceasar" Young Openly Charges "Nan" Patterson With Murder.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—For some reason not explained, the grand jury which has been considering the state's case against "Nan" Patterson, the actress, held in the Tombs in connection with the death of "Caesar" Young, reached no conclusion today. The matter will go over until Monday.

When the case was called and a jury had been sworn, Assistant District Attorney Garvan asked for an adjournment until next Wednesday on the ground that Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, brother-in-law and sister of the prisoner and important witnesses, had disappeared. Though the police have hunted New York over and though they have followed every possible clue, no trace of J. Morgan Smith has been found. Inspector McClusky has communicated with the police of all the cities in this part of the country, asking for information concerning the missing man.

After the short session of court held by Coroner Brown today, Mrs. William Luse, who has a deep-seated hatred for "Nan" Patterson, as do all the relatives of "Caesar" Young, said to the prisoner: "You killed him."

All arrangements for the formal unveiling of the Col. James Anderson monument in Allegheny were completed last night by the special committee of councils appointed to prepare for the event. In the rear of the statue, at Federal and Ohio streets, a large stand has been erected for the accommodation of the singing societies and the bands. A street parade will be held prior to the unveiling ceremony, and it is expected that 5,000 people will be in line.

Director Scandrett will have the entire police force out and a squad of mounted officers will lead the procession. The marchers will be school children, members of the three Grand Army posts of the North Side, the members of Elks' Lodge No. 339 and the Boys' Brigade.

Col. Samuel Hamilton Church will make the principal address. Stephen G. Porter and the Rev. John A. Jayne will also speak. Attorney General Carson has sent word that he will be unable to attend.

CHILE LETS CONTRACT FOR TRANS-ANDINE RAILWAY

SANTIAGO DE CHILE, June 10.—The government decree accepting the bids for constructing the Trans-Andine railway was signed today. The contract has been divided by the Chilean government between William R. Grace & Co. of New York and Clark & Co. and S. Pearson & Son of London. The aggregate of the contract is $6,750,000, but ultimately the government designs to expend two or three times that much on the railway.

Wilkinsburg Auditor's Shortage.

DR. MOFFAT TALKS ON EDUCATION

Good Exercises at Commencement of Graduating Class of Allegheny Prep. School.

TWO EAST END CEREMONIES

A large and fashionable audience attended the second commencement exercises of the Allegheny Preparatory school in the North Presbyterian church, Allegheny, last night. The church auditorium was handsomely decorated for the occasion with flowers and the class colors.

The Rev. Dr. J. M. Thoburn opened the exercises with the invocation. The Rev. Dr. James David Moffat, president of Washington and Jefferson college, made the address to the class. A feature of the evening was the music by Mrs. Anna J. Dill, organ; Henry J. Hetzel, violin, and Howard J. White, violoncello. Miss Jessie Dunlap Matchneer read an essay on "Richard Wagner." James Patterson Fleming took for the subject of an oration "Three National Ideals," and William R. Thompson, president of the board of trustees, presented the diplomas. The Rev. Dr. Moffat, in his address, said in part:

Problem of Teaching.

"Educational controversy centers about the principles of elementary education. Teachers are not essential. A pupil must learn by his own labor. One may educate himself without a teacher; the primary business of a teacher is to help him to learn, to cause him to study. Practical and liberal education each has its adherents. The hard-headed man of business will argue for the practical, while his sentimental wife demands the other. Education ought to fit men for life and prepare them to meet its responsibilities; but when we look for the studies that are to make up the practical education we are confronted with a problem that cannot be solved. Who knows what the boy wants to do? His mind may change."

Dr. Moffat then spoke on the variety of ideas and vague ambitions that are conceived by a youth and the instability of his mind under new and novel influences. Continuing, he said:

Must Continue Learning.

"If we had a system of caste in America, whereby the son followed the vocation of the father, we might block out our schools and lay down our courses of study accordingly. Practical education in its truest sense is not plausible.

"By a liberal education we give to boys and girls as many different things as they have time to learn. We lay the foundations for anything by laying the foundations for everything. No man will succeed in his chosen profession unless he becomes a learner and keeps on learning. The purpose is not to furnish boys and girls with a stock of learning and stop there; they must continue. Education is to furnish power so that the boy may be able to grasp the principles that lie at the base of his chosen work in life. There must be variety to nourish the mind, to develop it in all directions."

The graduates at the school this year are Louise Jean Elphinstone, James Patterson Fleming, Clara Belle Gregg, Jessie Dunlap Matchneer, Arthur Ellis Mayer and Albert Walter Wallace.

Commencements in the East End.

Forty-one young men graduates participated in the commencement exercises of the Shadyside and East Liberty academies last night. The Shadyside exercises were held at Carnegie Music hall and were attended by about 800 people. The East Liberty program was given at the academy, Linden avenue and Meade street, in the presence of a large audience. The Shadyside program, which was participated in by 27 graduates, follows:

MAYOR TAKES VACATION.

Hays Leaves for Atlantic City With Friends Hermes and Ennis.

Mayor Hays went to Atlantic City last night on a few days' vacation. The mayor was accompanied by Select Councilman Peter Hermes and City Gauger John F. Ennis. The mayor said yesterday that he intended to veto the resolution giving the firemen a vacation unless a surplus in some fund was found that could be transferred to the appropriation for the fire bureau to employ substitutes while the regular firemen were off duty.

He said it would be necessary to employ substitutes. The mayor, however, did not veto the resolution before leaving. The mayor proposes to take a longer vacation later in the summer.

"My niece's little baby boy, two years old, was so badly afflicted with eczema that he needed constant watching. It was all over his face and he scratched the sores constantly. Mornings his clothes would be stained with blood and his face and hands would be covered. His family never could take him out, as his face was always full of large sores. They had medical treatment and tried everything they heard of. She commenced using the Cuticura Remedies last spring and found that at last she had a wonderful healer. The sores left his face and he was entirely cured, and now his face is as smooth and rosy as though no sore had ever been there to mar it."

Overwork Killing Us

In the Great Struggle for Wealth and Position We Are Becoming Weaker Than Our Forefathers.

By the cares of business and social life we use up or waste away the most vital elements of the human body before we realize our weak and run down condition. It seizes on us so quietly at first that little or no attention is paid to the symptoms, which commence with a queer, bewildering sensation in the head, later the power to concentrate the thoughts, so necessary to brain workers, is lost. Following this will come deficient sight or blurred vision, muscular weakness and a dull pain in the small of the back. There is a tendency to tire easily; the digestion becomes impaired; the temper irritable; spirits depressed, ending in complete lack of confidence and a general feeling of disgust at our own weakness. When the blood and nerve forces have been wasted by disease, overwork, worry, brain-tire, high living, dissipation or other bad habits, Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food rebuilds the system by replacing the same substances that have been lost. Price 50 cents.

HANNAH ELIAS IS DISCHARGED

Platt Fails to Make His Case Against the Woman on Criminal Charge.

AGED MILLIONAIRE TESTIFIES

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—Mrs. Hannah Elias was discharged late this afternoon on the motion of Assistant District Attorney Rand, acting for District Attorney Jerome, at the conclusion of the testimony of John R. Platt, the aged millionaire, who caused her arrest on the charge of extortion. District Attorney Rand first made a strong appeal to have the woman held, and then Magistrate Ommen said:

"All the evidence that I thought would come out in this case has not been brought out." Magistrate Ommen then declared that the cashier of the bank who paid Mrs. Elias the $7,500 on the check that Platt gave her in July was not present to testify.

James W. Osborne, counsel for Mrs. Elias, said: "We admit that Mrs. Elias received the $7,500 from Mr. Platt in May. We concede all that."

Mr. Rand—I think this is a case in which the parties to this miserable scandal might be left to stew in their own grease. I therefore recommend that the charge against this prisoner be dismissed."

Platt a Poor Witness.

John R. Platt, the complainant, who was the first witness, said he was 81 years old and had resided in this city since 1857. He first met Hannah Ellias at the time the volunteer firemen came on from San Francisco, about 15 years ago. Some time later he again met the woman at a Third avenue massage establishment through an advertisement, and had kept up the acquaintance since. His relations with her had been of a tender character and he had bought for her a house and had given her large sums of money.

The aged witness then appeared to become very much confused and to several subsequent questions he replied that he could not remember and referred the questioner to his attorney. Asked if he had not signed a paper several days ago in which he stated that Mrs. Elias had extorted hundreds of thousands of dollars from him, he replied that he could not remember.

Mr. Platt would not give a direct answer to a question as to whether he had paid the woman more than $600,000 since January, 1896, but did remember that he gave her $7,500 last month. This payment was made, he said, because Mrs. Elias told him she was being sued and would have to go to court and expose him unless the money was paid. He could not recall that two men, whom the assistant district attorney named, were about to bring suit against her. She did tell him that if she was taken to court she would be obliged to testify as to her relations with the witness.

"What were those relations?" asked Mr. Rand.

"Business."

"Did you not pay her because of relations of a more tender character than doctor and patient?"

"I had relations with her and paid her sums of money," replied Mr. Platt. "I gave her the money because she said she would be put out."

"Then you were afraid of her?"

"I gave her the money to keep matters quiet."

"Did you ever give her the money willingly?"

"Yes."

Woman Was Rearrested.

Immediately after being discharged Mrs. Elias was rearrested on a writ in the civil suit which Platt had brought against her originally to recover $885,000. She was released on $20,000 bail in the civil suit. The bond was furnished by the London Guarantee and Accident Company.

Kato, the Japanese butler of the Elias woman, has been offered a position on the stage with a play founded on the case.

It was reported today that Mrs. Elias had received an anonymous letter postmarked Allegheny, Pa., and written on paper bearing the monogram of the Duquesne club, in which the writer threatened that if he was brought into the case publicly he would kill both Mrs. Elias and her lawyer. It was reported also that Mrs. Elias recognized the handwriting in this note, and believed it was not written by a resident of Allegheny, but by a wealthy New York man of her acquaintance, who probably was in Allegheny temporarily. The police are inclined to look upon the letter as the work of a crank.

The receipt by Mrs. Elias of a threatening letter on the stationery of the Duquesne club was discussed with considerable interest by members of that organization, but all agreed that it would be impossible to identify the writer except by the handwriting. The letter was unsigned, and as the writing room of the club is open to all members and guests at all times, the fact that it was written at the club does not go far toward identifying the author.

HEIRS CLAIM TITLE TO MANY CITY BLOCKS

Mayor McClellan of New York Served With Papers Dating Back to 1666.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—Legal papers served on Mayor McClellan, Controller Grout and Corporation Counsel Delaney constitute the first steps taken in an effort to regain control of the "town of New Harlem" for the descendants of the 23 original patentees, to whom it had been conveyed by the duke of York, brother of King Charles II., through Gov. Richard Nicolls and Deputy Governor Thomas Dongan, in 1666.

The land in dispute comprises all that portion of the island of Manhattan lying north and east of a line extending from the foot of Seventy-fourth street, on the East river, to the foot of One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, on the North river, except such portions of the present water front as are made lands.

Henry Pennington Toler of the firm of Pennington & Toler was appointed agent and attorney-in-fact to conduct and prosecute the suits. The paper makes demand on the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of New York to restore to the descendants of the original patentees the land mentioned.

Mr. Toler resigned his seat in the stock exchange in order to devote himself exclusively to the task of recovering the Harlem lands for the present occupants. In order to get at the basic facts it was necessary to trace all the descendants of the original patentees, of which there are 40,000, and of which 20,000 have been traced genealogically. The task took the tracers to England, the Netherlands, South Africa, South America and the Philippine islands. The next move will be to start a test case in the courts.

Allegheny Fourth of July Fund Not Growing So Rapidly as Last Year.

Contributions to the Fourth of July fund in Allegheny are coming in slowly. The subscriptions yesterday were less than half of that reported on Thursday. Director Scandrett desires that those who wish to add to the fund would send in their contributions at once, so that an estimate can be made of about how much is to be spent on fireworks. Last year the citizens contributed $3,600, and the director hopes to raise an equal amount this year so that the display on Monument hill may be up to the standard of former years. The following contributions were received yesterday:

M'KENNA TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Pittsburgh Attorney Sworn in as Federal Judge for Porto Rico.

RECEIVED AT WHITE HOUSE

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.

Charles F. McKenna of Pittsburgh was today sworn in as judge of the United States court for the district of Porto Rico. The oath of office was administered by his namesake, Justice McKenna, of the supreme court of the United States.

Judge McKenna returned to Pittsburgh tonight to get his personal affairs in shape to start for Porto Rico, although there is no necessity for haste, as the next term of court does not open until fall. However, he may go to the island in July, when Mr. Winthrop is to be inaugurated governor.

Mr. McKenna arrived here this morning, and, in company with Representative John Dalzell, called at the White House. He was received by the president, who talked with him about affairs on the island and gave him some instructions regarding his duties. Mr. McKenna thanked the president for the appointment, and then went over to the war department to call upon Secretary Taft. Mr. Taft's experience in the Philippines enabled him to give the Pittsburgh man some good advice, which was thankfully received. Mr. McKenna then called at the department of justice, and afterwards went to see Justice McKenna, who administered the oath of office.

In the afternoon Mr. McKenna accompanied Mr. Dalzell to the White House to attend the president's reception to the Filipino commissioners to the World's fair, and there he met Mr. Winthrop, who has just been appointed governor of Porto Rico. They had a pleasant talk and were glad of an opportunity to meet each other, as they will be thrown together a great deal by the nature of their duties. Mr. McKenna succeeds Judge William H. Holt, whose term of office expired on June 5.

Judge McKenna was seen at the Ebbitt house today by The Gazette correspondent, and expressed his gratification at his reception by the president.

"What I am particularly anxious to find out," he said, "is who discovered that story about my stealing a horse for Col. Quay at the battle of Fredericksburg."

"Why?" he was asked. "Wasn't it true?"

"Well, I don't propose to enter any denials or make any statement on the subject, for the reason that the story was credited to John Dalzell, and Mr. Dalzell is my friend."

"But surely there was some basis for the story," was suggested.

"Well, it is true that I was at the battle of Fredericksburg," replied the judge, as he started for the White House reception.

MAKING RECORDS ON ITS LAKE SHIPMENTS

Pittsburgh Coal Company Takes Advantage of Break in Strike to Rush Coal Up Lakes.

Big records are being made now by the Pittsburgh Coal Company in the loading of vessels at Lake Erie ports. The long delay in the opening of the lake season on account of the masters and pilots' strike has resulted in the accumulation at the docks of an unusual amount of coal, and when the first break in the strike took place, on Wednesday, there was a rush to start the transfer of the coal from the cars to the boats. On Thursday a new record for one loading was made by the coal company, no less than 850 cars being unloaded. On the same day 650 cars of coal were started from the mines to the lakes.

All the mines of the company along the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston and the Baltimore & Ohio, and all except four along the Panhandle, are working. The company is in a position to take advantage of the reopening of its big lake business and is securing good prices on the shipments there.

The change in the strike situation has given employment to thousands of men in this district whose work is affected by the shipments up the lakes. It is believed by many here that the strike will be entirely at an end in a short time.

WORK TO BE RESUMED ON THE WABASH STATION

Bricklayers Agree to Have Tuck Painting Dispute Settled by Arbitrators.

The dispute between the Bricklayers and Masons' International union and the contractors erecting the Wabash passenger station will be settled by arbitration. The men will return to work this morning pending the decision of the arbitrators. This was agreed upon at a conference of the contractors and the officials of the union yesterday afternoon.

Placing the dispute in the hands of arbitrators will settle a contention which has been brewing for the last eight years and will determine whether tuck-pointing and front-cleaning is to be classed as a separate trade or a part of the bricklayer's craft.

The bricklayers and stone masons of Allegheny county held a mass meeting last evening and appointed their arbitrators. The Builders' Exchange league will appoint the arbitrators for the contractors, as the general contractor, the George A. Fuller Company, and Joseph Stockhausen, having the sub-contract for the tuck-pointing, are affiliated with the league.

This is the first time the Builders' Exchange league has recognized the bricklayers' organization. Heretofore all contractors have dealt with the union individually. It was for this reason that the bricklayers failed to have an agreement with the brick and stone contractors.

Thieves Stole Clothes in Etna.

The Etna police are looking for thieves who entered the homes of four residents of that town early yesterday morning. Although the burglars obtained only some articles of clothing in the houses of Frank Schneider, 368 Butler street, and Joseph Molter, 370 Butler street, the citizens of the borough are alarmed at the boldness of the prowlers.

To Arrest Flower Pickers.

Sergeant Stoerchel of the Schenley park police, has issued orders to his officers to arrest all persons, hereafter, who are discovered picking wild flowers and destroying shrubbery. Many young women have been seen, recently, carrying away huge bunches of wild flowers and when reprimanded have pleaded ignorance.

POPE'S PHYSICIAN GIVES APPROVAL

Dr. Giuseppe Lapponi Indorses an American Medicinal Preparation.

IS FREE FROM PREJUDICE

One of the World's Most Distinguished Medical Men, He Has Availed Himself of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in His Practice and Praises Them.

Dr. Lapponi, the famous physician to the vatican, whose name has recently come so greatly to the front on account of his unremitting attention to his holiness, the late pope, Leo XIII., and the high esteem and confidence with which he is regarded by the present pope, his holiness Pius X., is a man of commanding genius. He is more than a mere man of science; he is a man of original and independent mind. Untrammelled by the "etiquette" of the medical profession and having used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in his practice with good results, he freely avows the facts and indorses the value of this remedy with an authority which no one will venture to question.

Dr. Lapponi's Letter.

"I certify that I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in four cases of the simple anaemia of development. After a few weeks of treatment the result came fully up to my expectations. For that reason I shall not fail in the future to extend the use of this laudable preparation not only in the treatment of other forms of the category of anaemia or chlorosis, but also in cases of neurasthenia and the like."

(Signed) Guiseppe Lapponi.
Via dei Gracchi 332 Rome.

The "simple anaemia of development" referred to by Dr. Lapponi is, of course, that tired, languid condition of young girls, whose development to womanhood is tardy and whose health at the period of that development, is so often imperiled. His opinion of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People at that time is of the highest scientific authority, and it confirms the many published cases in which anaemia and other diseases of the blood, as well as the nervous diseases referred to by Dr. Lapponi, have been cured by these pills. In all cases of anaemia and other diseases due to impoverished blood, and all affections of the nerves, such as nervous prostration, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis and locomotor ataxia, they are commended to the confidence of the public, and now that they have received the emphatic indorsement of so high a professional authority as Dr. Lapponi, the trusted physician to the vatican, they will be accepted by the medical and scientific world at their full value.

Saturday should see the last of these magnificent linen embroidered handkerchiefs we are selling for 9c. Many are hand embroidered—all are beautiful. Take a dozen or two—you'll never get such a chance again. Not one is worth less than 15c—most are 18c values. Take your choice while they last for..... 9c

Vigorous and Opportune Reductions in Trimmed Hats

We announce for Saturday the greatest reductions in finest trimmed hats we ever made this early in the season. You can save $5 to $10 on every hat you buy. This means something when we make the reduction, for our regular prices are so much lower than those quoted in stores that sell millinery as fine, that there is practically no comparison.

Do not for a moment think these hats are shopworn or old styles. We sell too many for them to become so. Every trimmed hat we have at any time of the year is always fresh and up-to-date. Because of the really enormous quantity we have sold this season there is not a hat in the house today which was here two weeks ago. There are turbans, toques and large hats in light and dark. Trimmed in the finest materials and as stylish as can be. This is the best millinery investment you ever were able to make.

Trimmed Hats for $3, $4 and $5

Seventy-five clever milliners are in our workrooms and are kept as busy as they can be turning out new hats every day. For today we will open a splendid NEW line of trimmed hats for ladies and misses at $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 in the latest summer styles and the very newest shapes. Most of them of course are light, comprising all that is best. There is not a hat in the lot but what is worth from $1.00 to $2.00 more, and many of them are in all truth worth twice as much as we ask.

The ladies' new French Sailor Dress Shapes are the prettiest shirtwaist hats ever designed, all trimmed and ready to wear, from $1.25 to $5.00.

Regal Oxfords fit at the heel and ankle like gloves.

You can put them on when you buy them and wear them all day with comfort.

And they'll keep their shape even longer than you will care to wear them.

You'll never have that uncomfortable "all-feet" feeling which comes from an ill-fitting Oxford.

Regal Oxfords are shaped on special Oxford lasts, that's why they cling snugly at the ankle—never "gape" at the sides—and for the same reason never chafe nor pinch.

There are 47 other newest custom styles in Regal Oxfords.

No "slack" leather, no wrinkling, no slipping up and down at the heel.

You can pay all sorts of prices for Oxford shoes; but, honestly—every cent you pay over $3.50 might be put to better use. A trial will prove it.

FILIPINOS WILL SEE INDUSTRIES

Government Asks That They Be Shown Steel Armor, Rail and Glass Plants.

SUB-COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The special council committee to entertain the Philippine commission met yesterday afternoon and appointed the subcommittees which will divide the work of the entertainment. Five sub-committees were appointed to make the arrangements. The committees and members are as follows: Itinerary, Wainwright, J. J. McKelvey, Brand; transportation and reception, Porter, Collins and Kearns; banquet and hotel, Roenigk, P. J. Barry and West; printing, Booth, Shenkan, Roenigk. A special committee on transportation, composed of officials of the various railroads, was appointed as follows: Pennsylvania, Robert Pitcairn and Samuel Mood; Baltimore & Ohio, Robert Finney; Wabash, W. Patterson; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, J. M. Schoonmaker; Pittsburgh Railways Company, J. D. Callery. There will be little work for this committee to do, as the expenses of the Philippine commission are paid by the government, the non-official members of the commission receiving $10 per day and the official members $7 per day for traveling and subsistence expenses. The expense of the city will be exclusively during the commission's stay in Pittsburgh.

The general council committee decided to give the Filipinos a banquet on Monday evening, June 27, and selected the Schenley hotel for the banquet and lodging, providing that reasonable rates are secured. The Filipinos, 43 in number, will arrive in Pittsburgh, over the Allegheny Valley railroad, on Monday, June 27, at 7:30 o'clock from Buffalo, and will leave for Cleveland on the following night at 10:30 o'clock.

The transportation committee was asked that the visitors be shown particularly the armor plate, steel rail and plate glass industries and the local system of transportation. The itinerary of the trip to the local industries was informally discussed at the meeting of the general committee, and will include a visit to the rail, armor plate and furnace departments of the Carnegie mills at Braddock, Homestead and Duquesne; to the Westinghouse electric, airbrake and machine works at East Pittsburgh, Wilmerding and Swissvale; also a trip to the plate glass factory at Charleroi and to Jones & Laughlin Steel Company's mill. The visit to these places will be by boat on Monday and by rail the next day.

Half a day will be spent on the boat trip up the Monongahela, and ample food and refreshments will be provided for a party of over 100. There will be about 300 guests at the banquet. Handsome souvenirs will be given the visitors. The committee yesterday received an offer from John F. Kline to donate his boat, the Mayflower, and a band free of charge for the day on the river. The offer was referred to the sub-committee on transportation.

It was suggested that the fire and police forces be put on parade for the edification of the visitors. The Pittsburgh Railways Company has offered the use of special cars free. The general committee adjourned to meet again next Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

HEARD ADDRESS BY PITTSBURGHER

Dr. Beach Talks Before Medical Association at the Atlantic City Convention.

LOCAL PEOPLE AT THE SHORE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Young's Ocean Pier.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 10.

The principal address at the closing session of the American Medical association today was made by Dr. William M. Beach of Pittsburgh, on specialism. He said in part:

Specialism is the avenue through which we seek perfection. Since by that method every energy is applied in an even line to seek complete knowledge of the one thing, it is a law of economy and the greatest skill is the direct result of division of labor. It is upon this law as a basis that we establish our premise that specialism in medicine is right, necessary and productive of the highest good.

In noting some things of specialism that make for optimism, we observe that to be a specialist signifies peculiar talent and qualifications. Certain fundamental principles must be comprehended and appreciated. Since the ideal man is rare enough and would probably be an expensive article could we find him, it must needs be that we should get our work done by special hands, and as we employ separate men for classics, mathematics and science in our educational affairs, so we should find one that has made physiology, pathology, etc., his province in medical matters.

The association concluded its session here today on Young's pier. Portland, Ore., was selected as the next place of meeting. A meeting of the American Orthopedic association was held at the Hotel Rudolf today. Two celebrated German surgeons lectured—Dr. Albert Hoffa of Berlin and Dr. Hans Spitzy of Gratz, Austria. The association elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, E. G. Brackett, Boston; first vice president, Frank E. Peekham, Providence, R. I.; second vice president, B. E. McKenzie, Toronto, Canada; secretary, John Rinlon, Chicago; treasurer, W. John Dane, Boston.

Capt. and Mrs. G. W. Clark, W. M. Clark and R. P. Clark, and Mrs. E. S. Montgomery, are spending some time at the Hotel Strand.

Percy Habaman is among the Pittsburgh guests at the Southern.

R. C. Smith has apartments at the Morton for a week's stay.

W. S. Huselton is spending a few days at the Marlborough house.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ramsey are sojourning for a short time at the Islesworth hotel.

H. S. H. Blum has quarters at the Gladstone for a week's visit.

J. D. Shields is spending the week at the Hygeia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Moorhead are guests at the Wiltshire.

H. H. Vice is at the Braddock for an indefinite period.

M. H. Stevenson and E. C. May are spending the week at the Hotel Dennis.

Mrs. J. Brady and Miss Stewart are guests at the Clarendon.

Miss Anna Moser, who has been a guest at the Chester Inn, has returned home.

EFFORT TO BRIBE PREMIER COMBES

Was Offered 2,000,000 Francs to Stay Eviction of Carthusians.

INVESTIGATION IS ORDERED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, June 10.—During an acrimonious discussion in the chamber of deputies today between Premier Combes and M. Millerand, the Socialist ex-minister, someone on the right shouted: "What about the Carthusian millions?" alluding to a scandal that has been the subject of violent controversy in the press and that was a subject of judicial investigation a few months ago.

"That is one of the most painful recollections of my life," replied the premier. "I sacrificed certain proof of an infamy committed against me to high political considerations."

Immediately after the current question had been concluded a deputy asked leave to interpellate on a subject of the alleged bribery. Premier Combes expressed satisfaction at the opportunity to reveal a secret that had weighed on him, and made the following statement:

"In December, 1902, the secretary of the ministry of the interior informed me that he had received a visit from a person offering 2,000,000 francs if I would bring in a bill authorizing the Carthusian monks to remain at Grande Chartreuse. (The secretary of the ministry of the interior was Edgar Combes, the premier's son.) I replied that the person had better not enter my room unless he wanted to be cut out the window, and attached no further importance to the incident, until a few months later, after a bill refusing an authorization to the Carthusians had been brought in, the newspapers accused the secretary of having asked a million for me to make a speech in favor of the Carthusians. An investigation was made and the intermediary, who was M. Lagrave, the commissioner of France to the St. Louis exposition, was examined, but he refused to name the person for whom he had acted.

"The minister of commerce cabled to M. Lagrave ordering him to give the name. He replied that he had communicated it to M. Millerand, his former chief. M. Millerand sought me and begged me not to divulge the name for important political reasons. The matter was then dropped."

A lively debate ensued. Several deputies demanded a full public investigation of the attempt to corrupt the premier. Premier Combes declared that the government wished full light to be thrown on the matter, and that not care whether an investigation was made by a parliamentary commission or by the judicial authorities. The chamber decided almost unanimously to appoint a commission of 33 deputies, which will be elected Tuesday, to thoroughly investigate the subject.

Want Brown to Oppose Hitchman.

GREENSBURG, PA., June 10.—(Special.)—The Monessen friends of Controller John H. Brown are urging him to run in opposition to John D. Hitchman, who defeated him for renomination at the Republican primaries. The scheme is to place the name of the presidential nominee at the head of the independent ticket, with Brown for controller and John C. Sondles of Greensburg, a Democrat, for sheriff. The same county candidates would be included in the Democratic ticket. The report from Monessen has it that Hitchman would be cut severely if this arrangement was carried out owing to the fact that Edward Frye of Monessen was defeated for the nomination for sheriff.

Must Identify Her Child.

Also Given a Reception at Which Six Hundred Persons Were Present.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY TAFT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Philippine commissioners were at the war department today and there several speeches were made. In the course of his remarks Secretary Taft said that if President Roosevelt was elected he (the secretary) would make a tour of inspection of the islands. Secretary Taft added:

"You will remember that in the law which provides for the election of a popular assembly in the Philippines, it is left to the president to say when the condition of the islands is such as to warrant the election of such an assembly, and of course, it is necessary for his representative, the secretary of war, to go there to see that the conditions are as they ought to be."

Dr. Tavera responded to the secretary's remarks and said several complimentary things about the administration of Gov. Taft in the Philippines.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at an elaboate luncheon this afternoon the members of the honorary board of Filipino commissioners. The luncheon was held in the state dining room of the White House. Prior to the luncheon the president and Mrs. Roosevelt received informally the visiting Filipinos and other guests invited to meet them.

Following the luncheon was a reception at the White House in honor of the commissioners. More than 600 persons called between 3:30 and 5 o'clock. The callers were received by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt in the blue room. The assembly was in the east room and there the callers enjoyed an hour with the Filipino commissioners who, entirely at their ease, despite the fact that a number of them do not speak English, mingled with Washington's social set. The Marine band played during the reception.

MASSETH WILL CONTEST.

Attorney Bowser Testifies—Physicians Say Mrs. Masseth Had Ordinary Intelligence.

BUTLER, PA., June 11.—(Special.)—The testimony in the contest over the will of the late Mrs. Benjamin Masseth was completed this evening. For the defense J. V. Ritts, of the Butler National bank, testified that Mrs. Masseth consulted him on financial matters. After her settlement with the executors of her husband's will, she deposited $7,000 on certificate and $3,500 subject to check, and put all her papers in a sealed envelope in a safety vault. She always appeared rational in her dealings.

S. F. Bowser, Mrs. Masseth's attorney at the time of her husband's death, told of her considering the terms of settlement with the executors, and after the settlement to her facing his fee at $900, one-third of which he was to give to another attorney. He said Mrs. Masseth made two wills previous to her husband's death, in both of which she spoke of Mr. Masseth as her beloved husband. She told him she loved Mr. Masseth, and because of his will would die a wronged woman. In telling of her marriage she said she and Mr. Masseth, when both were quite young, had gone before a man who called himself a preacher; that he had performed the ceremony and given her a certificate which she suspected Mr. Masseth had destroyed. Mr. Bowser said she never told him of standing at her husband's door two hours with a revolver to shoot him when he came out.

Doctors H. J. Neely and McCurdy Bricker said they had treated Mrs. Masseth and that she was of ordinary mind and understanding.

MAN OF NOBLE BIRTH DIES IN ALMSHOUSE

German Who Had Romantic Life Expires at York, Pa. Robbed of Savings.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

YORK, PA., June 10.—A character, whose life might have furnished the hero for a book of fiction, died in the almshouse here today. "Henry F. Westenhausen, admitted 1896, born in Prussia, came to America 26 years ago." Thus reads the entry in the almshouse register. In a Prussian town are records which show that Westenhausen was born 84 years ago of a noble family and was heir to a noble title. He was educated at one of the large universities, entered the Prussian army as a lieutenant and rose to the rank of colonel. He won honors and decorations before the federation of the German states. Westenhausen was enjoying the favor of a Prussian king and had possibilities of a splendid future when cupid turned him from fame and fortune to poverty and obscurity. While at a frontier barracks, Westenhausen fell in love with the daughter of a poor cobbler. Ignoring opposition and threats, he married the woman. Cast adrift by his parents, he quit Prussia and with bride went to England. There he faced poverty, which drove him to America.

The young nobleman and his plebeian wife came to York and settled upon a small farm, where they raised garden truck for the local markets. By rigid economy they saved enough to pay for the farm and there was enough left to insure them against want in declining years. This fund $1,800, was stolen from them by a Hebrew peddler, who boarded with them. Shortly afterward Mrs. Westenhausen died. The husband lost his home and was compelled to go to the almshouse. The body is unclaimed and may go to the dissecting table of the Anatomical association of Philadelphia.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, June 10.—Capt. Tenney for a while this afternoon really thought he had the Pittsburghs. So did some 2,500 fans, who looked to see the dire disgrace of those last three days in Pittsburgh wiped out. They were all mistaken, as the champions won in a canter, and there is no joy in Boston.

When the Pirates first trotted on the diamond they received a royal reception. Seldom has a visiting team been any better received in the Hub. The bunch of royal rooters who followed the Boston Americans to Smoketown when that organization played Pittsburgh for the championship of the world last season, were out in full force. Fred Clarke was obliged to doff his cap when he stepped into his position in left field. The fans cheered Hans Wagner wildly. The awkward fellow hesitatingly removed his cap from his head, bowed and smiled appreciatively. "Patsy" Flaherty, the acquisition from the White Sox, was next up and received Manager Clarke decided to use him in the box.

Tommy Leach opened the game by sending up a long fly to Cooley. Geier pulled down Beaumont's offering to the right. Clarke was a battlicchio to Tenney. No runs. The locals went out in order. In the second inning Wagner doubled over the right field fence and scored on Bransfield's sacrificed Wagner to third. Pittinger to Tenney. Kruger hit a grounder to Batty, who threw home to catch Wagner, the Pirate wonder, at the plate. Wagner was caught midway between third and home, and Delehanty, who received Moran's throw, dropped the ball, Wagner scoring the tally.

Cooley was out, Ritchey to Bransfield, on a bad decision. Ritchey, who juggled the ball, got it to first after Cooley crossed the bag, but Umpire Moran called the runner out. Tenney filed out to Leach, retiring the side in the same manner to Kruger. There was nothing doing for Boston in the third. Flaherty placed a beauty single in center. Leach hit a hard grounder to Tenney, who threw to Batty, forcing Flaherty. Batty, by a quick return, got Leach at first, completing a swift double play.

In the fourth, after Clarke filed to Cooley and "Honus" fanned, Bransfield got a safety to first on Delehanty's low throw to Tenney. As Moran drove a ball, which went clean over the plate on Kruger, a fan in the stand yelled: "Get some eye wash, Kruger offered at it, but let the ball go for a called strike, going past Moran. Meanwhile Bransfield went to third. Kruger stole second. Ritchey singled back of short, Bransfield and Kruger scoring. On Kruger's run Smith was hit over the plate Ritchey made second. Smith ambled to first. Flaherty struck out. The Pittsburghs made two runs in this inning on one single.

Umpire Moran had his hands full on Geier's fouls and the fans cheered. Geier singled past third. Leach made a great try for the sphere and came within an ace of stopping it. Geier made second on a passed ball and Batty filed to Kruger, who threw straight as a die to Wagner, who covered third to catch Geier. The arbitrator called the latter safe, much to the disgust of Hans. Cooley lifted a grounder to Ritchey, who threw to Wagner, Geier scoring on the play. Leach started the ditto, passing Clarke just before he crossed the first station. Warner knocked a two-base hit to the fence, Clarke scoring on the long smash.

The Bostons woke up, and Moran was safe on Leach's muff of his very high fly. Raymer sent Boston's second hit of the game to left field. Flaherty fumbled Delehanty's grounder, filling the bases. It was up to Pittinger to win his own game, but the best he could do was to raise a high fly to Ritchey. Geier made good by singling over second, scoring Moran. Batty hit to Leach, who threw to Smith in order to catch Raymer at the plate, the Pirate backstop failing to touch the plate, Umpire Moran calling the runner safe. Caldwell was out, Flaherty to Bransfield, Delehanty scoring. Cooley tried hard to connect, but it was futile, leaving two Beanites on the bases and the second frame.

Pittsburgh took the lead again in the eighth on Wagner's third successive single. He scored on Bransfield's sacrifice and Smith's safe single. In the ninth they made assurance doubly sure when Beaumont batted the ball over Clancy's head for three bases. Pittinger hit Clarke with the ball and Wagner made his fourth hit of the game, scoring Beaumont. Clarke scored on a low throw by Delehanty, and Wagner, after stealing second and third in slashing style, came home on an infield out.

The Bostons went out in order in the later innings of the game, but this required great fielding by Pittsburgh. Bransfield beat out Batty's vicious drive in the eighth, and in the same inning Captain Clarke stumbled and fell while chasing a short fly, but caught and held the ball. Score:

NO FEAR ABOUT ART EXHIBITION

Temporary Gallery to Be Built for Use During Remodeling of Carnegie Institute.

FOREIGN ARTISTS INFORMED

Painters of world-wide reputation, who had become alarmed lest the building of the additions to the Carnegie institute buildings might prevent the holding of the annual loan exhibition, have been reassured. Notices have been sent to them that the fine arts committee of the institute has decided to erect a temporary building in which to hold the annual international exhibition.

The building will be brick, of fireproof construction, 50x180 feet in extent. The valuable pictures which will be exhibited there will be just as safe from fire or earthquake as in the present art galleries.

The decision to build a gallery was made because the architects notified the fine arts committee that the gallery would not be available for exhibition purposes in November and December. Many changes are to be made in the present building beneath the galleries, and the main stairway is to be removed. The work cannot be done in time to permit the use of the galleries in November and December, nor can the reconstruction be delayed until after January, 1904, without, perhaps, endangering the completion of the addition in time for Founder's day in 1905.

Director Bigelow was present at several meetings of the committee and gave permission for the erection of the temporary building on park property adjoining the institute. It will provide three large galleries with hanging space fully equal to that at present occupied by the permanent collections of paintings, sculpture and bronzes.

Members of the fine arts committee and of the board of trustees, who were present at meetings, strenuously opposed a proposition to abandon the fall exhibition, when it was found that the present galleries would be unavailable. It was urged that a new building would prevent a break in the continuity of the permanent exhibition, thus preventing great disappointment to a few hundred thousand people; besides, it was argued, the international exhibitions had attracted attention wherever art is known, and, therefore, an exhibition ought to be a feature of every Founder's day.

John W. Beatty, director of fine arts of the Carnegie institute, said last night the chief were the chief considerations that induced the committee to decide to erect a temporary building as the best way out of the dilemma. As an incidental advantage he mentioned the fact that the committee could give the building to the library department for the storing of books during the remodeling of the library stacks.

The fine arts committee has been made a building committee, with John Henderson as chairman. Alden & Harlow are drawing final plans and it is expected that specifications will be ready early next week. The building will be completed by September 1. No estimate of cost has been made. The selection of the international exhibition will be selected as usual, two members from Europe and eight from America. It will meet in Pittsburgh on October 8, and the exhibition will open on Founder's day, November 3.

LADIES OF MACCABEES ELECT GREAT OFFICERS

Tellers Forced to Work All Night in Order to Report Election.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., June 10.—It was not until after an entire night of hard work that the tellers of the Great Hive, Ladies of the Maccabees, were able to complete their labors.

The result showed that the following were elected: Past great commander, Rachel A. Bailey; great commander, Mrs. Burns, St. Louis, Mich.; lieut.-commander, Mrs. Anna Holthe, Muskegon, Mich.; great record keeper, Emma Lowe, Ann Arbor; great finance keeper, Mrs. Susie Graves, Port Huron; great medical examiner, Dr. Holdom, Detroit; great chaplain, Mrs. Emma C. Hall, Battle Creek; great sergeant, Mary A. Cook, Dowagiac; mistress-at-arms, Carrie Gilbert, Detroit; great sentinel, Carrie E. Torrey, Grosse Isle; great picket, Adah M. Price, Alma. The ladies decided to reject the plan for county representation to the great hive, although the great hive sent a special committee to advise them to accept the plan.

Two new officials were created in the Great Camp, K. O. T. M. today. They are great councillor and great editor, and John B. McIlwaine of Port Huron, will fill the first and S. D. Williams of Battle Creek the second. The board of auditors was also made elective today instead of appointive, and Judge W. R. Kendrick of Saginaw, was made the first member. The others will be selected later.

The great camp of the knights today decided not to move the headquarters from Port Huron, and voted a special assessment of 50 cents on each member to pay for a temple. It was decided to meet at Ludington in 1906, though this action may be reconsidered. The great record keeper's salary was raised from $2,500 to $3,000 a year.

The Great Hive, Ladies of the Maccabees, voted unanimously to change back to its old colors, red, white and black, instead of red, white and blue colors adopted recently by the executive committee. The ladies decided to hold the next biennial convention at Detroit, and it is for this reason that the great camp is likely to reconsider its selection of Ludington.

MISS LENA MORTON DEAD.

PARIS, June 10.—Miss Lena Morton, daughter of Levi P. Morton of New York, died this morning from the effects blood poisoning following an operation for appendicitis. Miss Morton's family were at the bedside when she died. No funeral arrangements have yet been made, but it is probable that the body will be embalmed and taken to New York for interment.

Miss Morton was 27 years old. She was the elder of two unmarried daughters of former Vice President Morton. She was educated here while her father was United States ambassador to France. Her father and mother and sister, the Duchess of Valencay, remained at the private sanitarium, in which the operation was performed, until death occurred.

EXPERTS TEST THE NEW MAINS

Downtown's Fire-Fighting Equipment Exhaustively Investigated by Insurance Men.

PART OF A GENERAL REPORT

The efficiency of the fire-fighting equipment of Pittsburgh's downtown district was given a thorough test from 7 to 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening for the benefit of a party of six engineers representing the National Board of Fire Underwriters. The test was made at the corner of Eighth street and Duquesne way, where for half an hour seven of the city's fire engines coughed and racked and threw 13 streams on the banks of the Allegheny to the great edification of a large crowd of urchins, the great satisfaction of Fire Marshal William D. McGill and the great dampening of whosoever dared to cross the Seventh street bridge while the show was on.

The engines of Companies Nos. 1, 2, 3, 18, 19, 30 and 32, the last being the automobile engine with its turret, were connected with the 10-inch main in Eighth street, the 12-inch main in Ninth street and Maddock place and the 30-inch main in Duquesne way. All of these mains are new ones, having been added under the last appropriation for increasing the supply of water in the congested portion of Pittsburgh.

"The test has been reasonably satisfactory," said F. T. J. Stewart, the head of the party of investigators. "We expected good results and they have been realized. When the engines were first connected with the plug at the southwest corner of Eighth street and Duquesne way, the pressure was 80 pounds. With two engines at work at their hardest the pressure decreased only to 23 pounds. This is good."

Mr. McGill also was pleased with the result of the test. "The new mains have shown up very well," he said. "I consider the test to have been very successfully passed."

The work of the investigators was thorough. One man was stationed at each engine watching its operations, to see both the value of the engines themselves and the skill of the firemen in the operation of these machines. Chief Engineer Miles Humphreys and Assistant Chiefs William Bennett and Robert McKinley were on hand directing the work.

The members of the inspection party, in addition to Mr. Stewart, are C. P. Smith, Albert Jarmon, F. H. Plum, C. R. Nickerson and F. S. Crigler. They have been in the city for several days looking into the various conditions that bear upon the insurance situation here. The test last evening is but a part of their work. They will be here for several days more, going thence to Cincinnati to make a similar study.

Their trip is the direct outcome of the conflagration in Baltimore. The lessons learned there are being turned to account elsewhere, and such points as the need of fire shutters on big buildings across narrow alleys from other buildings are being noted with much care. Upon the report they will make of the situation here will depend largely the removal of the present lockup or the assessment of still higher insurance rates.

On their visit to the South Side Thursday, the inspectors were refused admittance to the water works. This district they will report, it is said, as without fire protection and a considerable increase in the rates charged there is inevitable.

PERSONALS

Frank B. Smith, general vice president, and Thomas M. Blackburn, president of the district council of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers; John Haskins, secretary of the Building Trades council, and J. Guenther, president of the marble workers, returned last night from Harrisburg, where they appeared before the the state capitol commission to urge the employment of union men in erecting the state buildings. The workmen proved the contract was awarded to a firm discriminating against organized labor, and that if the union men were not given preference the building would be delayed indefinitely and all union men would cease work. The contractors were present at the conference, and they agreed to comply with the requests of the labor leaders.

Robert McAfee and Richard Scandrett returned last night from their trip to Philadelphia and Harrisburg in the interest of the appointment of a successor to the late United States Senator M. S. Quay. "I think every person ought to be satisfied with Attorney General Knox," said Mr. Scandrett. "The press and the majority of state leaders favored Knox before any other aspirant."

Dr. W. W. Orr of Charlotte, N. C., passed through Pittsburgh yesterday on his return home. Dr. Orr was a delegate to the recent meeting of the United Presbyterian assembly.

Maj. Oscar Engwall of the Salvation army left last night for New York, having been transferred from Pittsburgh to the metropolis.

R. J. Northam of Los Angeles and E. F. Northam of San Jose, Cal., are in Pittsburgh on a tour of the eastern cities. Both were born in Liberty avenue near Third street. About 28 years ago they went to California, and yesterday was the first time they have seen Pittsburgh since they went to the Pacific coast. The change made during their absence was a startling surprise to them.

NEW VESSELS FOR HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE.

Order Placed for Sister Ship to "Europa"
New Building Will Be Largest So Far Constructed for German Trade—
Restaurant a la Carte a Feature.

The Hamburg-American Line announces that it has placed a contract with the famous Vulcan Shipbuilding works, at Stettin, for a new twin-screw passenger steamer, which is to exceed in size all vessels that have heretofore been built for the German shipping trade. She will be of the same type as the great vessel now building for the company in Belfast, which will be ready for service in 1906. The new steamer will be named "Europa," and is to be completed in 1906. She will have a capacity of 25,000 gross register tons, thereby surpassing not only the steamer "Deutschland," at present the largest vessel of the company's fleet, but also the steamer "Amerika," recently ordered at the Harland & Wolff works, at Belfast, the capacity of which will be 23,500 gross register tons. However, the speed of these vessels will be less than that of the great flyer "Deutschland," as these new vessels are to maintain an average rate of speed of about 17 knots per hour, thus making the voyage to England or France in less than eight days and to Hamburg in about nine days.

In Memoriam.

The board of directors of the Duquesne National bank have learned with sorrow of the death of their respected and honored vice president, John Munhall, who died at Atlantic City, New Jersey, on the 9th day of June, 1904, in the 71st year of his age. Mr. Munhall has been a faithful and reliable member of the board of directors of this bank since 1880. His counsel was prized and his judgment held in high esteem. He was a true Christian gentleman, charitable, loving and kind. As a citizen his sterling example was ever deemed commendable and worthy of emulation. We cannot but feel how inadequate are words to express our loss.

Mr. Munhall has lived the years allotted to man here below. God has taken him to a higher sphere. We mourn his absence from our midst. We also keenly feel the great and irreparable loss his death brings to his bereaved and afflicted family, to whom we tender our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sorrow.

EDWIN RINDLEY, President.

SOCIETY

SEVERAL departures from the original plans were made at the entertainment given yesterday at the home of Miss Martha Childs for the benefit of the Children's hospital. The cold and inclement weather made the entertainment purely a porch sale and the auction of autographed books and pictures was postponed until this evening, when it will be held after the close of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." A number of the books were disposed of yesterday, however, Miss Mary Stevenson paying $20 for the copy of President Roosevelt's "Rough Riders," which was inscribed "With best regards of Theodore Roosevelt." Among the other books sold were Paul Lawrence Dunbar's "Songs of the Hearthstone," for which Mrs. Herbert DuPuy paid $5, and Mr. Dunbar's "Lyrics of Lowly Life" which Addison M. Imbrie purchased at the same price. The other books disposed of brought varying prices.

Nearly everything on the porches were sold yesterday afternoon, and what little remains will be offered for sale today at Miss Childs' home in South Linden avenue. The pergola yesterday was crowded with tables containing fancy articles. Many were also hung from cords drawn from pillar to pillar. Dainty aprons, sacques, caps, bags, fans and sofa pillows were massed in pretty confusion all over the tables and the array of articles included pieces of artistic burnt wood and leather. The candy and cake tables held tempting displays, while much interest was occasioned by the demonstration of a new jelly bag for which orders were taken yesterday, the Children's hospital receiving a commission for all orders secured. The tea table, an attractive feature of the entertainment, was placed in the dining room.

The committees for the entertainment yesterday were as follows:

Fancy work—Mrs. J. R. Macfarland, Mrs. Charles Wharton, Jr., Mrs. G. Irwin and Miss Seymour.

Shakespeare's Play Tonight.

The students in Miss Gleim's school have arranged to give "A Midsummer Night's Dream" this evening in the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music. This will be a great change from the original plans, as they called for the performance out of doors on the school grounds, but the change was made because of the uncertainty of the weather, which already has caused one postponement of the play. The play will be given for the benefit of the Children's hospital.

Yesterday several of the autographed books secured for the porch sale at Miss Martha H. Childs were awarded as follows: Miss Ruth Edwards, Miss Louise Mitchell, Miss Elizabeth Liggett, Miss Elizabeth Frank and Miss Virginia Schultz for selling the largest number of tickets for the play this evening.

Harshman-Tejan.

Miss R. Isabelle Harshman of Eaton, O., and the Rev. George B. Tejan were married last evening at 8 o'clock in the Trinity Lutheran church, Avalon, of which Mr. Tejan is pastor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Claudius Freseman of Bradys Bend. The church was beautifully decorated. Master George Vollbers was ring bearer and Miss Alice Shook and Miss Esther Rosencraft acted as the little flower girls. There were no other attendants. The ushers were James G. Malin, Harry M. Buscher, John E. Maeder and W. Hirsch. The ritual of the Lutheran church was used. The bride was simply gowned in white. Mr. and Mrs. Tejan will live at 410 McKinley avenue, Avalon.

Iroquois Club Concert.

Much interest is being manifested in the concert to be given Monday evening in the Nixon theater by the members of the Iroquois club. The two Pittsburgh favorites, Mrs. Lizzie Hudson Collier and William G. Beach, will appear in a one-act musical play entitled "Old Love Letters," by Bronson Howard. The scenery and costumes have been especially prepared for this production. The audience promises to be one of the most fashionable ever seen at a theater concert, as all theater parties have been arranged and the boxes will be occupied by prominent people of the two cities. The theater will be elaborately decorated.

Copeman-Mullmeyer.

A pretty wedding took place last evening at 9 o'clock at the home of Frank Mullmeyer in Braddock avenue, Hawkins station. The bride, a sister of Mrs. Mullen, was Miss Matilda Copeman, daughter of Mrs. Mary Copeman, and the bridegroom was William Bigge. The service was read by the Rev. Frederick Schuh, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church of Allegheny. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Bigge of Allegheny, a sister of the bridegroom. Favors for the ladies will be appropriate Colorado silver mementoes and the gentlemen favors will be unique Colorado stick pins.

"Open House" Postponed.

There will be music, dancing and refreshments, and the entire building will be thrown open to the guests of Mr. Webster.

In Honor of Miss Williams' Guests.

Mrs. Thomas W. Smith of Shady avenue entertained with a very enjoyable dinner dance last evening, the guests of honor being the three house guests of Miss Jeannette Williams, who are Miss Marjorie Whiting and Miss Catherine Lyce of Chicago and Miss Edna Foster of Buffalo. Pink roses formed the decorations for the dinner, which was followed by an informal dance.

Covers were laid for 12, the guests also including Miss Helen Bredin, Miss Genevieve Pontefract, Miss Helen Witherow, Miss Marjorie Evans, Miss Katherine Jennings, Miss Mary Jennings and Miss Bessie Miller. ### Smart Entertainments Yesterday.

A smartly appointed affair yesterday was the luncheon at which Miss Mary L. Jackson was hostess. The appointments were unusually appropriate, the place cards were heart shaped affairs ornamented with cupids in water color, and the favors were hand-painted boxes of bon bons, Miss Shaffer's being a white satin box, on which was a cluster of violets. The centerpiece was of yellow daisies and pink sweet peas. An impromptu musicale followed the luncheon.

Out-of-Town Men Will Arrive Today.

Aaron Calvert Chesbrough and his out-of-town ushers will arrive in the city today to be present at the dinner which Miss Grace Hamilton and James Hamilton will give at the Country club this evening. ### Played the Games of Children.

A distinctly novel entertainment was the festival of games given yesterday afternoon in the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music, by over 100 young women the alumnae and students in the Kindergarten college, played the games of the children in the kindergarten schools. Their friends filled the gallery and occupied chairs placed about the walls, while on the platform were a number of the managers of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association.

Forming in a large circle the games were commenced with Miss Georgia Allison, the supervisor, directing. To the accompaniment of the songs and the clapping of hands the young women played, while Miss Alice Snider at the piano led the singing. The program opened with the distinctive games of the different nations, including the German, French, English, Swedish, Welsh and American, together with the games and songs illustrating the social life of the family and the various trades and occupations, such as carpentry, farming and shopping. The entertainment was concluded with the singing of "America," in which the kindergarten teachers, students and guests joined.

A Japanese Tea Garden.

The Wellesley college alumnae composing the Wellesley club in this city, gave a unique entertainment last evening for the benefit of the Wellesley college settlement. The entertainment took the form of a Japanese tea garden and was conducted on the grounds surrounding the residence of George B. Logan in Lincoln avenue, Allegheny. The place was gaily lighted with Japanese lanterns, and in the midst of the grounds stood an odd little Japanese tea house prettily decorated with Japanese parasols. Two fancy dances, the flower and butterfly dances, were given early in the evening and proved to be so pretty and dainty, the young women appearing in them with such peculiar grace and charm, that they were repeated frequently. There was also an exquisitely dainty Japanese dance presented by Miss Annie Davis, Miss Grace Steiner, Miss Anna Steiner, Miss Myra Sawhill, Miss Alice Logan, Miss Elizabeth McMilland, Miss Cecil Deane and Miss Edith Bachhouse. The flower and butterfly dances are features of the Wellesley tree day dances and were given last evening by Miss Annie Davis, Miss Alice Logan and Miss Alice Steiner.

Money Needed for Playgrounds.

Circular letters were issued yesterday by the officers of the joint committee of women's clubs asking for increased contributions this summer for the 19 playgrounds which will be opened in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. The letter which is addressed to all friends of the children bears the names of the general chairman, Miss Beulah Kennard, the secretary, Miss Jennie D. Bradley, and the treasurer, Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon.

A strong plea is made for the support of the 19 playgrounds in the two cities with the three recreation parks which are to be opened this season, the South Side recreation park, the Bedford Basin park and the recreation ground, as yet unnamed, in California and Marshall avenues, Allegheny. Five hundred dollars is needed for this last park alone so that it can be put in shape for the boys to use it as a baseball ground with some simple outdoor gymnastic apparatus. Four thousand dollars will be needed in addition to the appropriations already received in order to successfully carry on the work as planned for this season.

Kindergarten Commencement.

The commencement of the Kindergarten college will be held Wednesday afternoon, June 15, at 4 o'clock in the lecture hall of the Carnegie institute. Jarvis Adams, vice president of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association, will preside.

On Friday evening, June 17, the managers of the association will give a reception in the Kindergarten college in Fifth avenue, Oakland, in honor of the members of the graduating class, and on the following day the alumnae will hold their annual meeting and luncheon.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, PA., June 10.—(Special.)—The surprise sprung yesterday by the Republic Iron and Steel Company, asking for a 10 to 15 per cent reduction in all iron scales, caused a sensation. President Shaffer said the cut was considered all day. Little was accomplished.

In all probability the Republic mills will open only when the Amalgamated association sees fit to accept the 15 per cent reduction asked. James H. Nutt, labor commissioner for the company, stated that the proposed reduction would have to be allowed, owing to present conditions.

One infernal machine was discovered in the dining saloon, and the other in the audience chamber. The mechanism of both was working. The strictest secrecy has been preserved and this statement, although true, is sure to be officially denied."

IN BEAUTIFUL JAPAN.

Why is it Called "Cherry Blossom Land?"

IT IS not remarkable that the Japanese art possesses a most peculiar and dainty loveliness, when we consider that the nature of their country is of the most picturesque type. Even the trees and shrubs seem to delight in taking on the most unusual shapes, and flowers flourish in luxurious profusion. The cherry tree is very abundant throughout the land, and in the early spring, before the first shoot of green appears, the whole tree becomes covered with the most exquisite mantle of delicate pink blossoms ranging in tint from a slight blush to a deep red, and the effect is most delightful, the odor of the flowers being very fragrant. For this reason travelers seeing Japan in the springtime have called the country "Cherry Blossom Land." But the flowers soon fade away, and then the tree puts out leaves, and settles down to the serious business of bearing a crop of fruit.

Not only in Japan, but throughout the world, is youth the season of beauty. Our young girls in the freshness of approaching womanhood have a peculiar charm and attractiveness which is never exceeded at later life, but is replaced by the rounded outline and sedate step of maturity. A woman should develop from a child as naturally and gently as the cherry tree puts off its petals, and in a truly healthy woman this is the case.

A girl has as good a claim to strength and health as a boy, and generally needs them more. The vital organism of the young girl requires fresh air and sunshine, just as much as the beautiful American beauty rose. If the young woman is run down and weak, it is not possible for her to take vigorous athletic exercises, but she should then consult with some prominent specialist, and if she does not like to confide in some one at home, it would be well for her to consult, by letter, with some physician of world-wide reputation, such as Dr. R. V. Pierce, the specialist in woman's diseases, at Buffalo, N. Y., who will carefully scrutinize her symptoms and give her the best medical advice free of charge and in perfect confidence. Dr. Pierce was early a student of plant life as well as of the human system and he found that certain herbs, roots and barks made into a tonic without the use of alcohol or narcotics would cure the diseases peculiar to women, this he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The young girl or the matron at times in her life is weighted down by periodical disabilities which become hard to bear. What is needed is a tonic for the womanly system. During the past thirty-eight years this vegetable compound of Dr. Pierce has sold more largely than any other medicine intended only for woman's diseases. Few women in the United States have not heard of its splendid remedial qualities, for it is a Prescription

STOCKS WERE MORE ACTIVE AND PRICES CLOSED FIRM

Reading, Pennsylvania, St. Paul and Union Pacific Were All Strong and Higher—River Coal Preferred the Weak Feature Here.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a more cheerful tone in Wall street yesterday than on any previous day this week, and the advance in the stock market was better sustained than any recent movement. There was a difference of opinion as to whether the rise was based upon investment buying or whether it was a drive against the shorts, but there was no mistaking the broadening tendency of the market. The total sales were more than double the total for the day before, and closing prices were the highest of the day. In the railroad list the active leaders were Reading, Pennsylvania, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, St. Paul and Atchison, and the rally in these was not spasmodic, but slow and steady, with but little reaction. Wall street seemed to come to the conclusion that if the market would not decline on unfavorable news, it should advance, and there was a general expectation that the government crop report to be given out at 4 p. m. would be favorable. This expectation was not disappointed. The government report on winter wheat made the condition 77.7 per cent, an improvement of 1.2 per cent. While this is not very much improvement, it is favorable when it is considered that it takes into account the effect of the floods in Kansas and that the general average of the entire winter wheat section is better than it was a month ago. The figures compare with 76.5 at the corresponding date a year ago and 76.1 two years ago. The average condition of spring wheat was estimated at 93.4, against 93.9 a year ago and 95.4 two years ago. The spring wheat crop is late, but conditions today are more favorable for the plant going through the drought period without damage than it was during the past two seasons.

Atchison would naturally be affected by crop conditions in Kansas and the southwest, and that stock advanced nearly a point to 71¾. St. Paul would be affected by spring wheat conditions, and that stock advanced to 142⅜, closing at 142¼ bid. Chicago & Northwestern, which was quoted ex-dividend of 3½ per cent, opened at 166, declined to 167 and closed at 167¾, which, counting the dividend, is equivalent to a net gain of 1 per cent. Union Pacific rose to 85¼ and Southern Pacific to 47¾. The hard coal stocks remained strong under the leadership of Reading, which advanced to 47⅞. Pennsylvania gained nearly a point by advancing to 113½ and closed at the best.

There was some irregularity in the industrial list, but the general tendency was upward. Steel preferred advanced to 84¾ and closed at the highest, and the sinking fund bonds advanced to and closed at 75⅝. Rumbler Iron preferred made the largest advance, opening at 39 and selling up to 42½. Tennessee Coal & Iron was a point higher at 35. Amalgamated Copper moved within comparatively narrow limits, but in the closing dealings advanced to 69¾.

The tractions were moderately active and firm. Brooklyn Rapid Transit advanced 1¼ per cent to 48¼, and Metropolitan advanced 1⅝ per cent to 112⅝.

Call loans remained easy at about 1½ per cent. No gold was engaged for export. The preliminary estimates of the movement indicated a gain in cash through receipts from the interior of more than $5,000,000. There is likely to be a further contraction in loans, following the tendency of the previous three weeks, which is also a feature in the foreign monetary market, however, is not now looked upon as a factor in the stock market, except that the continuing ease is likely to stimulate the demand from investors. It is reported that some of the larger financial institutions are now buying investment securities because of inability to employ their funds in the usual channel.

The Pittsburgh stock market did not share in the improvement in the east, the tone generally being heavy. The weakest stock was River Coal preferred, which broke to 21¾ just before the close, the lowest price ever quoted for the stock. The sole reason assigned for the decline was doubt as to the action that may be taken by the directors next week in relation to the semi-annual dividend. The decline yesterday carried the price down to the lowest quoted for a 7 per cent preferred stock which is still in the dividend list. A block of $6,000 River Coal bonds changed hands at 111, which was unchanged from the day before. Pittsburgh Coal preferred recovered to 55 and closed at 54⅞ bid. Crucible Steel preferred was weak and lower, declining to 84¼, and the strength in National Fire Proofing common, which was a feature on Wednesday and Thursday, practically disappeared yesterday, the stock declining to 7⅝. The only other change of note was a fraily in Westinghouse Electric to 78¼, in sympathy with the advance in the east.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

There was some irregularity in the local stock market yesterday, but the tendency was downward. The break in River Coal preferred to 21¾, the lowest ever quoted, occurred just before the close, although the stock had been changed hands all day at 29⅜. There were no sales of Philadelphia Company, Peoples Pipage or Ohio Fuel Supply, which closed nominally unchanged in the bid price.

Pittsburgh Coal common was quoted at 14½ bid, 14⅝ asked, but there were no sales.

More than the usual number of quotations were made at the regular call of bank and trust company stocks yesterday, but no stock changed hands at the session.

Hilltop Street Railway 6s advanced to 116½ bid. A block of $6,000 United States Steel sinking fund 5s sold at 74¾ on the local board, an advance of 1⅛ per cent over the last previous sale.

There is a very fair investment demand for the Pittsburgh Brewing securities. The largest sale of any one stock on the exchange yesterday was 300 shares Brewing common at 24½ to 24⅝.

A private sale of 10 shares Colonial Trust at 330 was reported.

Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway directors declared a dividend of 1¾ per cent, payable July 1. This makes 3 per cent paid in the fiscal year as follows: October 26, 1903, 2 per cent; January 6, 1904, 1½ per cent; April 6, 3 per cent, and July 1, 1¾ per cent.

The United Railways Investment Company of San Francisco has declared a semi-annual dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable July 1. This is an increase of ⅛ of 1 per cent over the former rate having been 3 per cent per annum.

It is reported in Philadelphia that the Standard Oil Company has made a contract for 50,000 tons of soft coal, Philadelphia delivery, with the Somerset Coal Company, after sharp competition. The trade figures out the contract price at 78 to 80 cents a ton at the mines. The same coal company is reported to have made a contract for 6,000 tons of coal for the government, delivered at League Island, at about the same price.

Tips were in circulation yesterday to buy National Lead common and preferred, based upon expectations of a deal with American Smelting.

The gross earnings of Wabash for the first week in June increased $68,000.

Trade journals are bullish on the copper market. The outlook for exports this month indicates another record-breaker. It is thought that consumers may all come into the market in force and a sharp advance will result. The London metal market, however, was lower yesterday.

A Wall street dispatch said: "The special demand for Pennsylvania made another center of strength in the market. Some of the current gossip published today bearing on political affairs in Pennsylvania seemed to be made the basis for some of the speculation in this stock."

Crucible Steel preferred declined to and closed at 84¼. The weakness occurred simultaneously with an advance of 2½ points in Republic Iron & Steel preferred, which advanced in the New York market to 42½. The latter stock is in the same dividend position as Crucible, but even when both are paying dividends, Crucible sold higher than Republic.

Westinghouse Electric advanced in New York to the quivalent of 79, which was responsible for the rise here to 78¼, but the prices subsequently reacted to 77⅞ bid, 78 asked.

There were no transactions in Airbrake, which closed at 127½ bid.

With the disappearance of supporting orders in National Fire Proofing common the stock declined to 7⅝ and closed offered at that, with 7 the best bid at the close. There were no sales of the preferred, which closed at 26½ bid.

LOCAL INVESTORS BUY LORAIN LOTS

James L. Devenny and Amos Steck Invest $40,000 and $65,000 Respectively.

$50,000 SALE SEWICKLEY FARM

The town of Lorain, O., where the United States Steel Corporation is building its $10,000,000 tube plant, is having a real estate boom that has attracted the attention of well-known operators in that city, two of whom have made large purchases there this week. Through the agency of A. F. Emmons, James L. Devenny, who has operated largely in McKeesport and Fairmont, W. Va., has purchased from Daniels & Braune 100 lots in Lorain for $40,000. The property faces in Penfield avenue and is about midway between the new tube works plant and the business center, and on the main line of both the city and suburban street railways. The lots are 40 feet each, and have paved streets, sewers, water connections and flagstone sidewalks. Mr. Devenny will at once build 80 frame houses to cost about $2,000 each, which he will sell on the easy payment plan to employes of the tube works.

The other purchase was made by Amos Steck, also a McKeesport operator, who bought 190 lots adjoining Mr. Devenny's property for $65,000. The lots are of the same size and will be sold without any building improvements at prices ranging from $300 to $600. According to the statements of realty men who have surveyed the Lorain situation carefully, at least 2,000 houses could be sold between now and September 1 if they were built. Mr. Devenny's purchase was quite emphasized two weeks ago when the Nicola Brothers Company of this city was awarded the contract for building 1,000 frame houses at a cost of $1,000 each.

Sewickley Heights Sale of $50,000.

A. M. Byers, Jr., of the iron firm of A. M. Byers & Co., incorporated, has purchased from D. T. Watson the latter's farm of 23 acres on Sewickley Heights for $50,000. The property has a frontage of nearly 2,000 feet on the macadamized road directly across from the Country club holdings and lies between the Besterman property and the farm of Ralph Stone. A new house is now under way between the holdings of the late B. F. Jones, Sr., and the Henry W. Oliver property. The Watson farm has no buildings on it, but is considered one of the finest building sites in the Sewickley Heights district. The new owner has already started a large force of men grading the property, laying out walks and drives and planting hundreds of shade trees. Later on, it is said, he will erect a residence in keeping with the other houses in the neighborhood. This sale was at the rate of $2,174 an acre, and is the first transfer of property in this vicinity for months.

Although not generally known, the Pittsburgh, Carnegie & Western Railroad Company has finally got title to the property of C. E. Cornelius at the northwest corner of First avenue and Perry street, Sewickley, according to the deed recently registered, the lot measures 99x303 feet, and was improved with a three-story brick machine shop. The property is directly opposite the Hostetter holdings and brought $10.51 a square foot.

"Fayette Farms" Should Be Popular.

A unique suburban project is about to be launched that, if all claims now to have secured the exclusive agency for the "Fayette Farms" near Bridgeville. Six months or more ago the old Gordon farm, nine miles west of Bridgeville, was purchased by Nasser & Nasser, and it was reported that a lot plan would be laid out. Instead the promoters have laid out the 100 acres in "farms" of three acres, which will be sold for about $1,500 each. Fifty-foot drives have been surveyed through the property and these will be graded and provided with sewer and water connections. A large part of the farm is set with fruit trees, and there are also large numbers of oak, hickory and walnut trees on the land. The property is the main line of the Wabash road, and the Chartiers branch of the Panhandle railroad and within 30 minutes' ride of the city, making it especially desirable for suburban homes.

The Pittsburgh White Metal Company sold to Charles G. Grubb 20x100 feet, in Liberty avenue, near Seventeenth street, Tenth ward, for $12,000.

Sarah A. Kelly has bought from the D. W. C. Bidwell estate a residence property 50x163 feet, in Wallingford street, between Hidwell and Neville streets, Twentieth ward, for $12,000.

Charles J. Gibson has sold to David G. Bradner a residence property 30x158 feet, in Elsworth avenue, between Filbert and Bellefonte streets, Twentieth ward, for $12,000. The lot is improved with a large brick and stone house.

Steel Official Buys $15,000 House.

A. R. Hunt, superintendent of the Homestead Steel works, has bought from Dr. E. H. Wood the old Risher homestead at Tenth avenue and McClure street, Homestead, for $15,000. The deal was made through the Homestead Realty Company. Dr. Wood bought the property two years ago and the present buyer takes it as an investment. It is one of the best known residence properties in the borough, being a 10-room brick house on lot 200x110 feet.

Through the office of George N. Beckwith, 311 Euclid avenue, belonging to W. B. Clawson of Indiana, this house has been sold for $12,000 cash. The residence is a modern Queen Anne brick house and was bought by a local investor. The same broker sold for John G. Trimble his brick residence at 727 North Euclid avenue, for $7,000 cash.

Gertrude street: Samuel W. Black & Co. sold to Albert Simons a modern 10-room brick house at 5230 Gertrude street, Twenty-third ward, for $6,200.

WABASH ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE FOR SERVICE INTO PITTSBURGH

Provided there are no unexpected delays in construction, beginning about June 25, the Wabash will run its first regular trains into Pittsburgh. A schedule which is provisional in nature has been prepared. As far as is known it will be as follows:

Westbound—Trains Nos. 9-19 will leave Pittsburgh at 7:30 p. m., (city time) daily, arrive at Toledo 3:05 a. m., leave Montpelier 4:35 a. m. and arrive St. Louis 1:45 p. m. (via Merchants bridge and world's fair grounds). Trains Nos. 25-15 will leave Pittsburgh daily at 1:36 p. m. (Central time), Toledo 8:10 p. m., arrive Ft. Wayne 1:20 a. m. and at St. Louis 8:04 a. m. (via Merchants bridge and world's fair grounds).

Eastbound—Train No. 28 will leave St. Louis daily at 8:35 p. m., arrive Toledo 8:10 a. m. (via Delaware), and at Pittsburgh 4:35 p. m. Trains Nos. 16-26 will leave St. Louis daily, via world's fair grounds and Merchants bridge at 12:30 p. m., arrive Toledo 10:10 p. m. (via Delaware) and Pittsburgh 6:30 a. m. (Central time).

June 19 is the date set for a number of important time card changes throughout the middle west. It is likely that the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie will begin its daily special world's fair service at the same time. The "Limited" or the "Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Fast," which will furnish the Lake Erie an entrance to St. Louis will change time on June 19. On that date the Pittsburgh will number of fast trains between Columbus and St. Louis and Indianapolis and St. Louis. There will be six trains daily out of Columbus, and seven daily out of Indianapolis to St. Louis and return. The Lake Erie will participate in this schedule.

Hawkins Memorial Not Advertised.

With the exception of the Pennsylvania Lines west of Pittsburgh the home roads will make little effort today towards increasing travel to the city on account of the dedication of the Hawkins monument in Schenley park. The event has been little advertised by the railroads. The local committee believes that there are thousands of people who would come here if special trains were run and low rates offered. There have been many inquiries as to the trains but the committee unfortunately has not been in a position to give satisfactory replies.

French Locomotive Here.

The De Glehn locomotive which was imported from France by the Pennsylvania railroad for the purpose of making tests with it at the world's fair was brought to Pittsburgh yesterday morning under its own steam from Altoona. The machine upon arriving at New York was sent to Altoona where it was equipped with a tender. It was there that the New York division will go direct to St. Louis. What disposition will be made of it after the fair is not known.

Railroad Notes.

Rates and differentials to the G. A. R. encampment at Boston this week have been fixed.

A ticket broker at St. Louis has been fined 150 and costs for violating an injunction.

The Clover Leaf will be readmitted to membership to the Central Passenger association at the Lake Mohonk meeting.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie has turned out at McKees Rocks a combined baggage and horse car. The car will be used on first-class trains.

R. R. Jensen, general baggagemaster of the Pennsylvania system at Pittsburgh, is attending the convention of the National association of baggagemasters being held at St. Louis.

The Pennsylvania railroad engineers will hereafter wear regulation uniforms. They will be made of heavy canvass with a salt and pepper effect and will have broad blue stripes down the trousers' legs. The blouse will have military collar with a keystone on each side under the chin.

NEW POTATOES BREAK; ONION BOOM IS COMING

Peach Crop Will Be Big--Cheese Market Reported Slow. Poultry Improves.

The new potato market weakened yesterday and prices have been reduced accordingly. Old stock is still holding firm and commanding full prices. Tomatoes are now coming in much more freely and prices are lower. Strawberry arrivals were light yesterday and demand was slow. Arrivals of cantaloupes and watermelons were fair and the market showed very active for so early in the season. New crop fruit, such as cherries and peaches, are in fair request, but the arrival of the latter is still very limited. It is reported, however, that owing to favorable weather conditions in the Georgia orchards since April 1, the estimate of the Georgia output this year is placed at 6,000 cars. These will be harvested between June 15 and August 1. Although onions have been rather slow for some time, dealers look for a boom before very long. In anticipation of this, New York men are storing Egyptian stock. Both New Orleans and Bermudas are now about out of the market and Kentucky will not commence to arrive before the end of June. Texas advices have also been now having the call, but the demand will apparently be better all around in a few weeks. Pineapples are moving very freely, but according to Jensen, Hall & Co., the crop there is at least 35 per cent short this year.

Flour is holding firm and sugar is the same way, with prospects of its advancing in price before long. This will happen so soon as the preserving season gets better under way. Cereals are slow, while rice is wanted more generally, as is the case with various canned goods. One of the biggest handlers of dairy products in the city says the cheese market is in the worst condition it has been for several years. He explains that usually during the month of May his house handled from $25,000 to $30,000 worth of cheese, while the sales of the past month totaled only about $5,000. He attributes it in part to the strike and to the laying off of a large number of workingmen. Other dealers say new-made cheese is moving freely and seems to be in generally interesting request. There is no change in the poultry situation. Spring chickens are coming forward more readily since the recent reduction in quotations. The high prices on this stock tended to keep away buyers for several weeks. It also centered the demand on hens. Nothing developed in the butter or egg situation, both markets holding pretty steady. Cool weather has been helping eggs considerably lately. Demand for this stock is always better during the cold spells, but this season is exceptional in the matter of eggs, because the supply has been kept down. Rye straw is quoted higher, but aside from this no changes have been made in the hay, grain and feed line. Hay is looking better right along and receipts continue large. Oats are being freely offering around 47½ cents and 48 cents for No. 2 and selling at 47@47½ cents. Very little straw is coming in now and the shorter any amount of strength; in fact, the market is dragging.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania, 13 cars hay, 10 cars oats, 4 cars corn, 2 cars straw, 2 cars hay and straw, 1 car feed; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 5 cars hay; Baltimore & Ohio, 2 cars hay, 1 car oats.

WHEAT STILL SLIDING DOWNWARD AT CHICAGO

Fears That Government Crop Report Will Be Bearish Influence Market.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 10.—Unofficial forecasts that the government crop report on the condition of growing wheat would be bearish caused general liquidation of wheat today. At the close July wheat was down ½@¾c. Corn and oats are both off a shade. Provisions are up 15c to 35c.

Wet weather in the southwest caused a firm tone in wheat at the opening, the July delivery being up ½@¾c at 86¾@86¾c. The firmness, however, was of short duration, sentiment in the pit soon becoming bearish. The main factor in causing the change was apparently apprehension among the bulls that the government crop report would show a considerable improvement in both winter and spring wheat. That this fear was not groundless was made evident by the Kansas and Kentucky state reports, both of which showed an improvement of several points. Another factor that brought out numerous selling orders was the large Argentine shipments, in referring to the crop situation a St. Louis trade journal made the following comment: "The consequence to winter wheat had resulted from the recent heavy rains in the west and southwest, and that from many sections improved condition was reported. To add to the discomforture of the bulls, cash prices in all markets were lower.

A report that a break of 5c in the prices of cash wheat at Toledo proved very unsettling to speculative trading here. The market became weaker as the session advanced, and before any recovery was made July sold off to 85¾c, a decline of 7 points in the condition of Michigan wheat as shown by the monthly state report. In consequence part of the earlier loss in price here was recalled. Final quotations on July were 86@86¼c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 68,700 bu. Exports for the week, according to Bradstreets, were equal to 4,462,000 bu. Primary receipts were 256,500 bu., compared with 302,800 bu. a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 153 cars against 206 cars a year ago. Primary receipts to be very large.

Notwithstanding the weakness of wheat, the corn market held up remarkably well. Under the influence of wet weather in Nebraska a firm undertone developed early in the day and on the break in wheat there was some reaction in corn, the declining tendency being augmented by large primary receipts. The market, however, appeared to be well supported. The general belief being that prominent New York interests are large holders of July corn in this market. Prices rallied on the late up-turn in wheat and the close was practically unchanged from yesterday's final figures. July opened a shade to ¼c lower at 48¾c to 48¾c, sold between 48¾c and 49c and closing at 48¾c. Local receipts were 320 cars, with 34 of contract grade.

Although prices of oats were affected by the weakness of wheat the decline was very slight. Apparently there was no desire to venture far on the bear side, owing to the fact that all the heavy operators are on the opposite side of the market. Light stocks and small receipts continue to be the principal bull factors. After opening unchanged to a shade higher at 30¾@ 29¾c to 29¾c, July sold off to 29¾c, and closed at 29¾c. Local receipts were 95 cars.

Provisions were active and strong. The feature of trading was buying by a prominent packer who is said to be a short a big line. Small receipts of hogs at all western points had an important bearing on the situation. The market closed at the high point with September pork up 65c at 812 65. September lard was up 15c at $8 90. Ribs made a gain of 17½c closing at $7 20.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 27 cars; corn, 619 cars, oats, 108 cars; hogs, 11,000 head.

POLICE INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

T. Sterck, R. Smothers and E. Levy Held for Death of W. L. O'Donnell.

MRS. J. O. BROWN GETS PAPERS

Thomas Sterck, Robert Smothers and Edward Levy, employes of the police bureau, were yesterday indicted by the grand jury on a charge of murder. The officers are alleged to have caused the death of William L. O'Donnell while he was locked up in Central station on a charge of drunkenness, on November 1, 1903. The policemen are said to have beaten him and caused concussion of the brain, the effects of which resulted in his death in his cell before medical aid could be summoned. O'Donnell was 25 years old and a barber. The same bill was before the last grand jury and was ignored, but when sent up again yesterday the true bill was returned.

As soon as the court had accepted the bills from the jury, Attorney J. Robert Wright, for the prosecution, asked the court to have the defendants taken into custody, since the true bill charging murder had been returned. Attorney James Francis Burke, representing the policemen, said that bail should be allowed as the case could not possibly be one of first degree murder. In this view the court agreed and it was settled that the bail for each man should be $2,500 to be furnished this morning.

The other true bills returned were as follows: Felonious assault and battery, Elmo Kinney, Ann McDonough; aggravated assault and battery, Otto Lind, George Turner; assault and battery, L. A. Brunson, Louis Wilson (2); W. J. Morris, Ed Wolfram, John Delis, Morris Cohen, Josephine Dodson, Morris Dee; larceny, Sandy Popen, A. P. Munroe, William Long, John Donahue, Andrew Stickle; fraudulently making a written statement, C. H. McDonald; selling liquor illegally, Charles Burt et al., Maria Burt; embezzlement, Max Rise, Miller Crawford; receiving stolen goods, Frank McNamee; false pretense, Henry Schwartz, J. R. Sunley; burglary, Frank Morrison.

Further testimony was taken in the hearing on the audit of the account of Mrs. Ella M. Brown, executrix of J. O. Brown, and the case completed with the exception of the arguments by counsel. The hearing was featured yesterday by Mrs. Nattie W. McLean turning over a large bundle of papers to the executrix, which she had had in her possession since the recorder's death. The papers had been in the treasurer which had been mentioned often during the proceedings. She had kept the papers on account of notice to that effect being served on her by an attorney for J. C. Trees, a former partner of Mr. Brown. Mrs. Brown and her attorney were elated at getting the papers and they were placed in the custody of Clerk George T. Emery of orphans court.

The will of Mary C. Wells, late of Allegheny, leaves the residence at 928 Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, to her husband, Calvin Wells, with instructions of the proceeds of its sale; $5,000 each is to be paid to her children, Benjamin G. Wayne & Chicago railroad is left to Benjamin G. Wells. Calvin Wells Griggs, a grandson, is left $1,000, and the other children of Mary C. Griggs and Benjamin G. Wells are left $500 each. Nieces Mary C., Margaret, Annie G. M. Lincoln and Jessie G. Mathews are left $2,000 each, and Mary C. Griggs receives the residue. The value of the estate is not known.

In criminal court Foster Hand pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny, made by Minnie Aber, who accused him of taking some articles of jewelry from her trunk. A triangular love affair figured in the case.

Judge Frazer suspended sentence after a severe reprimand in the cases of entering a building against Albert Carson, Albert Asplinwall, James Ryan and Flody McKinley. The boys pleaded guilty.

NO MEMORIAL HALL.

Judge Macfarlane Decides He Is Without Power to Reconsider Petition of Citizens.

In quarter sessions court yesterday Judge Macfarlane handed down an opinion in the matter of the petition of the citizens for the erection of a memorial hall for the soldiers and sailors, in which he decided that the court is without power to reconsider the petition of the citizens for the hall. Unless there is some way to reverse the decision of the lower court the work of submitting the matter to two successive grand juries will have to be gone over again.

Judge Macfarlane also handed down an opinion in the case of the city of McKeesport against A. P. Warren of Elizabeth. The defendant was fined for selling adulterated milk in McKeesport and appealed from the decision of the magistrate. The decision of the magistrate is affirmed by the court.

MASS MEETING OF ZIONISTS

Children's day will be observed in many congregations tomorrow. In the majority of churches this service will be observed in the morning, while a few have set aside the afternoon and evening for its celebration. In all cases special music and appropriate exercises will be rendered.

The dedication of three churches, the corner stone laying of two houses of worship, the delivering of baccalaureate sermons to graduates of two institutions of learning, and a great mass meeting under the auspices of the Pittsburgh Zionist councils, are among the important features of the religious program for Sunday.

The Methodist Episcopal church at Hale and Kelly streets, Brushton, is to be dedicated tomorrow. In the morning the Rt. Rev. Bishop Earl Cranston, D. D., LL. D., will preach the dedicatory sermon, after which the Rev. T. N. Boyle, D. D., LL. D., will speak on "Financial Interests." Special music will be provided and the pastor, the Rev. B. B. Wolf, will make a short address. In the afternoon the baptismal of children will be administered by Bishop Cranston and Dr. Boyle. In the evening the Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton will preach. Special services will continue Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Dedication of Catholic Church.

St. Stephen's Roman Catholic church, Second avenue and Elizabeth street, Hazelwood, erected at a cost of $70,000, will be dedicated tomorrow. It is Italian renaissance in design, is constructed of buff brick and stone and has a seating capacity of 1,200. The Rt. Rev. Coadjutor Bishop Regis Canevin will bless the new church and preach the sermon. The celebrant of high mass will be the Very Rev. John Boyle, V. G.; the Rev. John Brillon will be deacon; the Rev. Charles Coyne, subdeacon, and the Rev. Lawrence O'Connell, master of ceremonies. In the evening the rector, the Rev. Father Daniel J. Devlin, will administer confirmation to about 400 persons.

The new First Methodist Episcopal church of Sheraden will also be dedicated tomorrow. The edifice is of buff brick and stone and has been erected at a cost of $25,000. The congregation was organized 20 years ago with a membership of 30 and now consists of 375. The building is modern in its appointments and the auditorium has a seating capacity of 850. The pastor, the Rev. W. D. Slease, has prepared an elaborate devotional and musical program for the occasion.

Mass Meeting of Zionists.

Some of the most distinguished Hebrews in this country will be at the great mass meeting to be held under the auspices of the Pittsburgh Zionist councils in the Bijou theater tomorrow evening. The list includes three presidents of Zionist federations of different countries—Harry Friedenwald of Baltimore, president of the Federation of American Zionists; Joseph Cowan of London, governor of the Jewish Colonial Trust and president of the Federation of Zionists of England, and Clarence I. De Sola of Montreal, president of the Federation of Zionists of Canada. The musical part of the program will consist of both vocal and instrumental selections. The Rev. S. Grafman and J. Bloom will render songs. A chorus of 30 voices will sing Zionist and national songs. Jean De Backer of the Pittsburgh orchestra will play a violin solo and music will be furnished by Nossokoff's orchestra of 40 pieces.

The corner stone of the new First United Presbyterian church of Oakmont is to be laid tomorrow afternoon. The Rev. J. M. Witherspoon will be master of ceremonies and addresses will be made by the Rev. Dr. Laurens M'Lure, the Rev. W. M. Lorimer, the Rev. Dr. J. D. Irons, the Rev. G. W. Montgomery and neighboring pastors in Oakmont and Verona. The stone will be laid by the pastor, the Rev. W. M. Butler, who will also speak on "Corner Stone Laying and Its Significance." Special music will be provided.

Hungarian Church Dedication.

The corner stone of the Hungarian Reformed church, Homestead, will be laid tomorrow with exercises conducted by the Rev. D. A. Souders, assisted by the Rev. Alexander Harsanyi and the Rev. John Ujlaky.

The Rev. Dr. William L. McEwan will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the collegiate and engineering departments of the Western University of Pennsylvania tomorrow morning in the Third Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Dr. Warren G. Partridge will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Pittsburgh academy in the Fourth Avenue Baptist church in the evening.

Tomorrow evening the Rev. C. L. Thurgood will preach a special sermon in the Central Christian church to members of the Foresters of America, while in the afternoon the Rev. W. J. Russell will conduct a special memorial service in the East End Christian church to the Knights of Pythias of Allegheny and Pittsburgh.

It gives brief descriptions of fifty-five principal resorts in the Rockies, telling on what lines of railroad they are located, how far they are from principal cities, and what advantages each offers the tourist.

The book gives also the names of more than 200 Colorado hotels, cottages and tenting camps, with their rates per day, week and month, the names of their managers, number of guests each house can accommodate and its distance from the nearest railroad station.

There are special pages telling how to see Colorado, how much to pay, what to wear, what special amusements and sports are available and how to keep within the state's game and fish laws. In addition to all this information there is an indexed topographical map.

READY FOR CARNIVAL.

Performers for the United Labor Show Ready for the Opening.

Some idea of the United Labor carnival, which opens at Recreation park, Allegheny, this afternoon, may be had from the fact that during the past two weeks 300 men have been employed on the grounds constantly. These were electricians, carpenters and other artisans and with the arrival of the performers and others interested in the affair, the number has, during the past two days, been swelled to 500. The lighting plant was tested last night and found to be in working order. As the grounds cover considerably more than a city block 5,000 electric incandescent lights and 200 arc lights were used.

In addition to the performances in the Aerodrome, which comprise all the features of a circus, there are other attractions on the grounds. Manager J. S. Berger of the Berger Exposition Company, declaring that as an outdoor exhibition it has not been equaled in the country.

M'CORMICK EXPLAINS.

No Truth in Rumors That Ambassador Is Coldly Treated at Russian Capital.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—Ambassador McCormick says the story is absurd that he has been coldly treated by Russian society because he takes care of Japanese interests.

The story, he says, may have been derived from the fact that the lease of Leuchtenberg palace, where the ambassador has been living and where the offices of the embassy have been for six months, expires July 1 and has not been renewed. Prince Kozebu rented the palace to Mr. McCormick last September as an accommodation until July 1, at which time the prince desired to reoccupy it.

As the date for the expiration of the lease approached the prince offered to renew it, but Mr. McCormick did not care to do so. The social season had ended, he had obtained leave of the state department to take a much needed rest, and Mrs. McCormick was going to the United States to remain until next winter. Mr. McCormick arranged with the prince for the embassy offices to remain in a portion of the palace indefinitely and postponed the question of taking a residence until after Mrs. McCormick should return from America.
